

Israeli Violations' Activities in the oPt

27 December 2011

The daily report highlights the violations behind Israeli home demolitions and demolition threats in the occupied Palestinian territory, the confiscation and razing of lands, the uprooting and destruction of fruit trees, the expansion of settlements and erection of outposts, the brutality of the Israeli Occupation Army, the Israeli settlers violence against Palestinian civilians and properties, the erection of checkpoints, the construction of the Israeli segregation wall and the issuance of military orders for the various Israeli purposes.

The Violations are based on reports provided by field workers and/or news sources.

The text is not quoted directly from the sources but is edited for clarity.

The daily report does not necessarily reflect ARIJ's opinion.

Brutality of the Israeli Occupation Army

- The Israeli Occupation Army raided the eastern area in Ballata reugee camp and Ballata town under the cover of intense shooting conducting military searching in a number of Palestinian houses.
- Israeli Occupation Army forces opened fire at agricultural land east of Beit Hanoun town north of the Gaza strip. Meanwhile, Israeli forces raided northwest Beit Lahiya town , under the cover of intense shooting , no injuries were reported

- The Israeli Occupation Authority decided to close Al 'Ein mosque, the kindergarten of "Tefeel Al Muslim" and number of commercial stores and shops until further notice in the main street in Wadi Al Helwa in Silwan town under the pretext of public safety.
- The Israeli Occupation Army arrested Riyad Musa Abd Al Qader Shelada(37 years old) from Sa'ir town and conducted military search in the houses. Also the IOA, erected military checkpoint at the entrance of Beit Ummar town north of Hebron city and stopped the Palestinian cars and checked their ID cards.

Israeli settlers violence

- Hundreds of Israeli settlers with the protection of Israeli Occupation Army raided Yossef tomb in Nablus city and practiced religious rituals.

Others

- The Israeli newspaper " Maariv" revealed that the local building and construction committee in Jerusalem city will discuss on 28th of December 2011 the establishment of tourism project submitted by the association of "El-Add" in Silwan neighborhood in Jerusalem city. The project will be held on 8400 meters square and includes a museum, classrooms, meeting halls, parking as well as archaeological sites. And it will be linked with crossroad and tunnels; the first will start at the southeast site of castle of David while the second will connect the project to Al Aqsa mosque. The Project will facilitate the tourists access to the Old city of Jerusalem. Another project with 3 thousand meters square is submitted by El -Add to be implemented in Al-Aien Al-Fuqa in Silwan town in an attempt to resurrect Israeli Heritage sites and to empower their presence there.