- The Israeli Occupation Army arrested Mohamd Bassim Khadert Al-'Alami (21 years old) from Beit Ummar town north of Hebron city after storming their parents' houses in the town and took him to unknown destination.
- The Israeli Occupation Army arrested Yacoub Ahmad Shtawi (60 years old) after attacking and beating him while trying to stop the Israeli bulldozers from attacking his lands in Kafr Qaddum village in Qalqilyah city.

Israeli settlers violence

- Hundreds of Israeli settlers stormed Al Baq'a area east of Hebron city and started planting trees in Palestinian owned lands. One of the landowners, 'Ata Jaber, indicated that settlers under the protection of Israeli Occupation Army stormed more than 1000 dunums of lands owned by him and others in the village. The IOA informed owners of the targeted lands that the military orders was extended until 2014; which prevents them from accessing their lands unless they coordinate with the Israeli Civil Administration.

Confiscation & Razing of Lands

- A number of Palestinian residents from Al 'Issawiya and At Tur neighborhood in Jerusalem city gathered in the area that witnessed the razing process by the Israeli bulldozers; the targeted lands are located in KHALLET AL 'Ein area owned by Al Sayad and Abu Sinan families. The IOA beat and arrested Tawfiq Abu Sinan; one of the owners. Furthermore, the Israeli soldiers arrested 4 Palestinian citizens and a number of International activists.

Israeli Military orders

- The Israeli Occupation Authority handed out a number of residents from Haris town east of Salfit demolition and halt construction orders. Of the notified Palestinians; Ihsan Sadeq Souf, As'ad Mustafa Souf, Ahmad Mustafa Souf, Hussam Sobhi Souf, Yasser Hussein Saleh Sliman, Saber Fawaz Da'oud, Faris Dao'ud and Fahid Abd Al-Latif Da'oud.

Others

- The Israeli Court approved to establish settlement a road that would link between Qiryat Arba' settlement and the Ibrahimi mosque in Hebron old city. The road will be constructed to grant Israeli settlers living in Kiryat Arba' settlement a safe passage to the old city of Hebron. The two kilometers road will threaten and remove a number of Palestinian houses and destroy agricultural lands and uproot trees.
