Brutality of the Israeli Occupation Army

- The Israeli Occupation Army handed Mraweh Hafez Jerar from Az Zawiya south of Jenin city a notification to interview the Israeli Intelligence in Salim military base after storming his house and messing with its contents. In addition, the IOA raided the house of About Fawaz Jerar and detained him as human shield for protection purposes during the raid. Furthermore, the Israeli Army stormed the house of Nedal Samih Al-lau in Fahma refugee camp and messed with its contents for more than hour and questioned its residents; also the soldiers staged into Kafer Ra'i town and 'Anza village and patrolled its army vehicles in the streets.

- The Israeli Occupation Army raided 'Azzun town east of Qalqilyah and arrested Rami Samih Abu Hana (19 years old) and Bah'a Al-Deen Samir Salim (19 years old) from their houses. It is worth to mention that the detainees were released in Shalit deal.
- The Israeli Occupation Army raided the house of Jarryus town mayor east of Qalqilyah city; Mohammad Jaber and messed with its contents and beat his mother Majeda Jaber (56 years old).
- The Israeli Supreme Court issued a preliminary ruling, forbidding Burin village mosque south of Nablus city from using loud speakers and even from using lights on the mosque's minaret. The ruling was made after an extremist right-wing settlers group submitted photographs proving the mosque was renovated, and that lights and loudspeakers were installed despite a court ruling made nearly 18 months ago forbidding further constructions and renovations.
- The Israeli Army raided Al Mughayyir village north Ramallah city and arrested 4 Palestinian citizens after raiding their houses. The arrestees are; Bayan Talal Na'san, Walid Abd Al Qader Abu 'Aliya, Mussa Bashir Mohamad and Khalid Mazen Haj Mohamad, all are students at the Birzeit University.
- The Israeli Occupation Army arrested the Palestinian fisherman; Ahmad Zayed from his boat near Beit Lahiya town north of Gaza strip.

House Demolition & Demolition Threats

- Representatives of the so-called Israeli "Natural Gardens" Authority, accompanied with the Israeli police demolished part of a cement fence, barbered wires and a gate around the land of Samir Faroji in As Suwwana neighborhood, in Jabal Al-Zaytoun area in Jerusalem city. An Israeli truck put the mounds of dirt in the 5-dunums lands. In addition, the Israeli bulldozers demolished a room and a retaining wall, and confiscated a refrigerator and destroyed the building stones without pre-notification.

- The Israeli Army bulldozers raided Furosh Beit Dajan area north of Nablus city and demolished 3 agricultural barracks in Ja'wana area owned by As'ad Hanini , Shaher Abu Hayt and 'Atef Huisen Hanini.
- The Israeli Army bulldozers demolished agricultural barracks owned by Abdalla Bani Jame' in Khirbet At Tawil area near Aqraba town south of Nablus city.
- The Israeli Occupation Army raided Khirbet Tana village and demolished barracks owned by Mohammad Nasasra and confiscated a number of Canvas used to build the tents

Others

- The Israeli Civil Administration officers accompanied by security forces razed three structures at the illegal outpost "Oz Zion" as IDF soldiers set up roadblocks nearby to prevent residents from entering the outpost. The Civil Administration identified the three structures that were built on private Palestinian land. Demolition orders were issued as part of routine law enforcement in the area and the Israeli authorities' fights against illegal construction in the West Bank. The outpost has also been declared a closed military zone. Oz Zion is a small outpost adjacent to Beit-El, and its residents are mostly hilltop youths. The outpost has been razed several times before and is usually rebuilt shortly afterwards. In January, the Civil Administration razed five structures in the outpost of Oz Zion.
