Brutality of the Israeli Occupation Army

- The Israeli occupation Army raided the house of Ma'mar Al Ja'bari and searched in its contents in Hebron city. Also the IOA handed him notification to interview the Israeli Intelligence.

Israeli Military Orders

- After the "Seeba" Spanish organization managed to install Solar Panels at Immein zil village in Hebron Governorate in the southern of the West Bank, the Israel occupation authorities issued a military order notifying the residents to remove the Panels under the pretext that the panels were installed without a building permits .The village never had power, but after the panels were installed, the residents started providing their homes, and event tents, with lights. The Solar Panels also enabled the residents to run a water-pump to provide the village with water supplies, especially since it does not have running water.
