Confiscation & Razing of lands

- Israel recognizes 4,000 dunam in Gush Etzion as state land. Settlement Gva'ot now declared part of Israeli land in West Bank; Peace Now: 'This is a message to the Palestinians that Israel would negotiate with Hamas and at the same time destroy chance to reach true accord with moderates.' Israel announced Sunday that it will recognize the 4,000 dunam Gva'ot settlement in the West Bank as state land. The IDF said there was no Palestinian claim on the area in question, but those against the decision could file their objections within 45 days. Gva'ot, located at the western part of Gush Etzion, is officially considered a neighborhood of the settlement Alon Shvut. In actuality, it operates as a separate community a few kilometers away. Gva'ot has not been officially recognized by Israel since it was built without zoning permits, so in order to start the process of declaring it a recognized community, the state had to delineate the boundaries of the community. Most of the territories in the West Bank are divided to three categories: private land (whose ownership is registered with the state), state land (areas that haven't been worked and are not listed in the with the Israel Land Authority that are considered state-owned), and lands under survey or "admot seker" (land that has reverted to the state due to lack of use for 10 years and lack of registered ownership, but which has yet to be declared as such). These surveys, which in many cases take years to carry out, aim to determine the ownership of the land based on several criteria. In most cases, the declaration of status is delayed because the government has yet to make the decision on the issue. Gva'ot is located in the heart of Gush Eztion, near the hill on which the men of the Haganah Convoy of 35 were killed during Israel's War of Independence in 1948. In order to create territorial continuity from the communities to the Green Line, the government decided in 1982 to build a Nahal settlement in Gva'ot. (Ynetnews 31 August 2014)

- Israeli Occupation Authorities handed out a military order to confiscate 10.716 dunums of Palestinian land in Sair town, north of Hebron city. The targeted land is owned by Abu Shanab and Shalalda families. (Wafa 31 August 2014)
