- On the 21st of July 2014, the Palestinian Center for Human Rights published the report about the situation in Gaza strip on the 14th Day of the Israeli war against Gaza strip. “Another Bloody Day On the 14th Day of the Israeli Offensive: Complete Families Attack While inside Their Homes; Rescue Crews to Search for Victims in al-Shuja’iya Neighborhood; More Palestinians Forcibly Displaced in Border Areas Since the Beginning of the Israeli Offensive on Gaza: 492 Palestinians Killed, of Whom 406 Are Civilians, Including 129 Children and 69 Women, and 2,803 Others Wounded, Mostly Civilians, Including 822 Children and 572 Women; 425 Houses Targeted and Destroyed and Hundreds of Others Extensively Damaged. Thousands of Palestinian Civilians Forcibly Displaced.

Israeli occupation forces have continued their brutal and immoral offensive on the Gaza Strip for the 14th consecutive day, and have continued the policy of collective punishment in disregard for the international law and humanitarian law, which ensure protection for civilians in times of war, and in violation of the principles of necessity, proportionality and distinction. Israeli forces have continued their aerial, ground and sea attacks throughout the Gaza Strip, causing more civilian casualties and damaging civilian facilities, including houses and mosques. Following the bloodiest day in al-Shuja’iya neighborhood in the east of Gaza City, on which 65 Palestinians were killed, Israeli forces destroyed houses without prior warnings while the families were inside, reminding of scenes of the al-Sammouni and al-Dayah families during “Operation Cast Lead” (2008-2009). For instance 23 members of the Abu Jam’e family, including 18 children, were killed in Kahn Yunis. Israeli forces have continued the ground operation in the Gaza Strip. They moved hundreds of meters into Palestinian areas located along the border between the Gaza Strip and Israel, amidst intensive shelling. Israeli warplanes supported these incursions. Israeli forces ordered Palestinian to leave these areas. At least 170,000 Palestinian civilians have been forcibly displaced from these areas, and UNRWA opened dozens of shelters for them at schools. PCHR field workers reported that several families are still missing in al-Shujai’ya neighborhood following Sunday’s mass killings. From 10:00 on Sunday, 20 July 2014 to 10:00 on Monday, 21 July 2014, 124 Palestinians, 107 of whom are civilians, including 45 children and 26 women, were killed. Additionally, 463 Palestinians, mostly civilians, were wounded – this number includes 143 children and 49 women. Israeli warplanes also targeted and destroyed 36 houses. The latest developments since the press release issued by PCHR yesterday noon have been as follows: The Northern Gaza Strip: Israeli warplanes launched 45 airstrikes and Israeli tanks and gunboats fired dozens of shells targeting houses, agricultural plots, open areas and civilians. As a result of these attacks, 11 Palestinians, including 7 civilians, were killed– the civilian victims include 2 children and 3 women. Additionally, 113 Palestinians, including 33 children and 33 women, were wounded. Israeli warplanes targeted and destroyed 13 houses.
