The number of Palestinian civilians killed under the debris of their targeted houses has increased to 28, including 6 women and 11 children. The number of Palestinian civilians killed under the debris of their houses adjacent to targeted houses has increased to 4 (2 women and 2 children). The number of Palestinian civilians killed near their houses has increased to 10, including 3 women and 2 children. Israeli occupation forces have continued their offensive on the Gaza Strip for the 4th consecutive day, and have continued the policy of collective punishment in disregard for the international law and conventions, which ensure protection for civilians in times of war. Israeli forces have escalated their aerial, ground and sea attacks throughout the Gaza Strip, causing more civilian casualties and damaging civilian property. Israeli forces have continued their immoral acts through targeting houses while their residents are inside, annihilating complete families. The latest of such crimes was committed this morning, when Israeli warplanes targeted and destroyed a house belonging to the Ghannam family in Rafah, while the family were inside. Similar attacks were launched against the families of Kaware', Hamad and al-Hajj in the course of this ongoing offensive. Following each of such attacks, the Israeli Prime Minister claimed that warplanes missed the target, in an unacceptable justification, as these houses were targeted by Israeli forces although they knew that Palestinian civilians were inside, like what happened with the Kaware' family as the human shield atop the house was clearly seen. Israel would not be able to commit such crimes unless it has support from the United States, which considers Israel's acts as self defense, while the international community remains silent. Under the threats of launching a ground operation against the Gaza Strip, the scenes of the Israeli offensives in 2009 and 2012 were recalled, as hundreds of civilians living in border area have been forcibly displaced. From 10:00 on Thursday, 10 July 2014 to 10:00 on Friday, 11 July 2014, 17 Palestinians, including 13 civilians, were killed.
