Brutality of the Israeli Occupation Army

- A wild pig attacked a 10-year-old child in the town of Yamoun, west of Jenin, causing her injury in her hand. Alaa Houshieh was admitted to hospital after she was bit in her hand by a pig. Israeli settlers let wild pigs run loose in the fields to attack farmers and villagers as a way to keep them off their land.(Wafa 6 May 2017)
- Violent clashes broke out after the Israeli occupation Army (IOF) stormed Haris village, northwest of Salfit Governorate. Dozens of Israeli soldiers set up a makeshift checkpoint at the main entrance to the village, spread across its streets, stopped citizens and interrogated them. The soldiers showered local young men with tear gas, provoking them to respond by throwing stones at the soldiers. (PALINFO 6 May 2017)

- Israeli occupation Army (IOA) kidnapped a Palestinian citizen, from Qabatiya town in Jenin, at a makeshift checkpoint on a road leading to Ramallah city. The detainee was identified as 20-year-old Adham Qarqish and was kidnapped after intercepting a public car he was aboard. (PALINFO 6 May 2017)
- The Israeli occupation Army (IOA) stormed Iraq Burin village, south of Nablus, and clashed with local young men. The IOA patrol vehicles entered the eastern neighborhood of the village before a brigade of soldiers stormed on foot the old district and spread near its Mosque. The IOA fired tear gas and rubber bullets at the young men before they withdrew to the main entrance of the village and set up a makeshift checkpoint there. (PALINFO 6 May 2017)
- The main entrance to Beita village, south of Nablus, has been blocked with mounds of dirt and rocks for about three weeks. The Israeli occupation army (IOA) claimed its closure of this entrance aimed to prevent the local residents from organizing protests there on Fridays. (PALINFO 6 May 2017)

Israeli Arrests

- The Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) detained Adham Ahmad Qarqish from Qabatiya town south of Jenin city while on his way to Ramallah at a sudden checkpoint that was suddenly erected by the IOA. (Wafa 6 May 2017)

Israeli Closures

- Israeli occupation Army (IOA) sealed the main entrance of the village of Beita in the northern occupied West Bank Governorate of Nablus. Israeli bulldozers, escorted by the IOA sealed the main crossroads of the village with large dirt mounds and then prevented Palestinians from entering or leaving the village until further notice.
