Brutality of the Israeli Occupation Army

- Three Palestinians, including an 11-year-old boy, were injured when Israeli occupation Army (IOA) raided Shufat refugee camp in occupied East Jerusalem. The boy suffered injury in the forehead with a rubber-coated steel bullet. A man in his 60s and another resident who was not identified further were also treated on the scene after they were shot with rubber bullets. Several others suffered from severe tear gas inhalation.
