Israeli Arrests

- Israeli police detained a Palestinian security guard of the Al--Aqsa Mosque compound in the Old City of occupied East Jerusalem, after the guard reportedly stepped in as an Israeli soldier “assaulted” a Palestinian child. Israeli police detained the guard, identified as Yahiya Biseileh, from the Council Gate entrance to the compound, after Biseileh “objected to an Israeli female soldier assaulting a Palestinian child while he was trying to enter the mosque.” The guard was also assaulted by Israeli police and border guards during his detention. (Maannews 5 October 2017)

- In the East Jerusalem-area Shufat refugee camp, Israeli occupation Army (IOA) detained five “youths” from the camp after raiding and searching their homes. The five were identified as former prisoner Mumen Khader al-Dibs, Udayy al-Dabet, Said al-Dabet, Tahsin al-Rajabi and Elias al-Rajabi. (Maannews 5 October 2017)
- In the central West Bank Governorate of Jerusalem, undercover Israeli forces detained three Palestinians from the town of al-Ram. (Maannews 5 October 2017)

Israeli Settler Violence

- 55 Israeli settlers entered Al-Aqsa compound from the Moroccan Gate under the protection of Israeli police forces. The settlers toured the compound and attempted to perform prayers at the Golden Gate. (Maannews 5 October 2017)

Israeli Closures

- Israel closed on Thursday a rural road in Husan, west of Bethlehem, making farmers’ access to their land the more difficult. The Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) closed a rural road between Husan and Wadi Fukin by placing a metal gate and barbed wire around the land, which would make it very difficult for farmers to reach their land to pick olives or for any other reason. 500 dunums of agricultural land has been affected by this act, which comes as farmers prepare to harvest their olive crops. The targeted land is located near the illegal settlement of Bitar, which raises concern of landowners of possible Israeli future takeover under the claim that the land is not used by its owners.
