Brutality of the Israeli Occupation Army

- Israeli occupation Army (IOA) suppressed a weekly march held in the village of Kafr Qaddum in the northern occupied West Bank Governorate of Qalqiliya, where they shot tear gas, rubber-coated steel bullets, and sound bombs at hundreds of protesters. Hundreds of local Palestinians and foreign supporters marched from the village's streets towards an Israeli-installed gate erected at the main road of the village, often closed by the IOA to control the movement of Palestinians in and out of Kafr Qaddum. The IOA deployed at the gate fired tear gas canisters, rubber-coated steel bullets, and sound bombs at the protesters. The IOA had also raided a park in the eastern part of the village and “turned it into a military zone” in order to suppress the protests. (Maannews 14 July 2017)

- An 18-year-old Palestinian was killed by Israeli occupation army (IOA) during a detention raid in the al-Duheisha refugee camp in the southern occupied West Bank Governorate of Bethlehem seeking to detain two residents. The killed Palestinian was identified as Baraa Hamamda. The IOA also detained Muhammad Ubeid and Muath Abu Nassar during the raid, adding that they then fired live bullets, tear gas, and stun grenades at al-Duheisha residents. (Maannews 14 July 2017)
