Brutality of the Israeli Occupation Army

- Israeli occupation Army (IOA) attacked, the weekly procession against the Annexation Wall and colonies in Kufur Qaddoum village, east of the northern West Bank city of Qalqilia, and fired rubber-coated steel bullets and gas bombs. Dozens of locals, accompanied by Israeli and international peace activist marched in the village, protesting the ongoing closure of Kufur Qaddoum's main road, which was blockaded by the army more than fourteen years ago, to enable easy access to colonists, driving to and from Kedumim illegal colony, built on private Palestinian lands. The IOA resorted to excessive force against the protesters, and fired gas bombs and concussion grenades at them. The IOA also prevented many Israeli and international activists from entering Kufur Qaddoum to participate in the procession with the Palestinians. (IMEMC 4 November 2017)

- At least two Palestinians were shot and injured when the Israeli occupation Army (IOA) attacked Palestinian protesters, along Gaza borders with Israel. One youth was shot by a rubber-coated steel bullet, in the foot, along the borders to the northeast Ash-Sheja'eyya neighborhood, east of Gaza city. The youth sustained light injuries.
