Brutality of the Israeli Occupation Army

- A humanitarian flotilla from the Gaza Strip was stopped nine miles from the shore of Gaza by the Israeli navy. The boat was seized, and its passengers returned to the prison of the Gaza Strip. The attempt to break the blockade comes two weeks after 'Bloody Monday', when Israeli forces opened fire on unarmed demonstrators at the Gaza border with Israel, killing 66 and wounding more than 700. (IMEMC 29 May 2018)

- The Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) distributed leaflets threatening residents in the village of al-Khader, south of the West Bank Governorate of Bethlehem, that they will suffer from collective punishment in the event they continued to throw rocks at Israeli soldiers and 'endanger the lives of [illegal] settlers. A military force stormed the old town of the village and distributed leaflets threatening residents of collective punishments, including repeated raids on their houses and arrest campaigns.
