Brutality of the Israeli Occupation Army

- The Health Ministry in Gaza announced that the Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) have killed 45 Palestinians, and injured 7945, including 100 medics, in addition to causing damage to 25 ambulances after directly targeting them. Among the slain Palestinians are five children, two journalists and two persons with disabilities. (IMEMC 5 May 2018)

- The Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) injured several Palestinians, including a medic, after the army attacked protesters near the northern entrance of al-Bireh city, in the Ramallah and al-Bireh Governorate, in central West Bank. The IOA, stationed at the permanent roadblock near Beit El colony military and security center, fired rubber-coated steel bullets, gas bombs and concussion grenades at dozens of protesters, who marched in the area. Many Palestinians suffered the effects of teargas inhalation, while a medic was shot with a rubber-coated steel bullet in his leg. (IMEMC 5 May 2018)

Israeli Arrests

- The Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) and jeeps invaded al-Yamoun village in Jenin, searched several homes and detained a Palestinian teen, a high-school senior, identified as Yazan Ibrahim Abu Obeid. (IMEMC 5 May 2018)
- The Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) invaded Silwad town, east of the central West Bank city of Ramallah, and summoned Mohammad Abdul-Nasser for interrogation. The army also fired live rounds, rubber-coated bullets and gas bombs at many youngsters who protested the invasion into Silwad. (IMEMC 5 May 2018)
- The Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) released Aya Abu Naab, after issuing an order preventing her from enter Al-Aqsa Mosque, for one week. The IOA detained a young Palestinian woman, near the Al-Aqsa, in occupied Jerusalem. The IOA stopped the young woman, identified as Aya Abu Naab, 19, from Bab Hotta neighborhood, adjacent to the Al-Aqsa Mosque, in the Old City, and detained her. The young woman was cuffed before she was taken to a nearby interrogation facility. It is worth mentioning that Aya was detained by the army three times over the last several years, and received various orders preventing her from entering the holy site. She was placed on a “blacklist” preventing her from entering Al-Aqsa for life, for protesting ongoing invasions by the IOA and settlers, and their provocative tours, in the holy site. (IMEMC 5 May 2018)

- The Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) invaded and searched many homes in Yatta town, south of the southern West Bank city of Hebron, causing property damage, and installed several roadblocks. (IMEMC 5 May 2018)

Israeli Settler Violence

- Israeli settlers installed caravans in the al-Farsiya area of the northern Jordan Valley region, in the occupied West Bank. Settlers installed caravans on agricultural lands outside of the illegal Rotem and Shadmot settlements in the Jordan Valley, which he said could be a prelude to establish a new settlement outpost. (IMEMC 5 May 2018)
- Jewish right-wing organization Ateret Cohanim handed a judicial notice to Jawad Abu Sneneh, a Palestinian citizen of occupied Jerusalem neighborhood of Silwan, ordering him to leave his home, alleging that it belongs to Israeli settlers,. Members of Ateret Cohanim raided Abu Sneneh's home and handed his family a judicial notice ordering them to leave the home before June 25 and to pay a fine of $5300 as a rental fee for "renting" the house from its alleged Israeli owners for three years. Abu Sneneh's home is an apartment which shelters his 11-member family. It is located in a five-storey building, most of which has been taken over by Jewish settlers since 2015. (IMEMC 5 May 2018)

Erection of Israeli checkpoints

- The Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) installed roadblocks at the main roads leading to Sa'ir and Halhoul towns, and at Hebron's southern entrance, before stopping and searching dozens of cars, and interrogated several Palestinians while inspecting their ID cards. (IMEMC 5 May 2018)
