Brutality of the Israeli Occupation Army

- During an early raid into Ramallah City, Israeli occupation Army (IOA) invaded, a print shop and confiscated the equipment, sparking locals to resist in Deir Abu Mashal village in Ramallah Governorate. local Palestinian's opposed the incursion, and hurled stones at the invading IOA who fired rubber-coated steel bullets and tear-gas canisters at the civilians. An Israeli crane, escorted by the IOA installed an iron gate at the main entrance of the village in the northern

Ramallah Governorate. The iron gate now blocks the road to Ramallah city for the people living in the village of Deir Abu Mashal. (IMEMC 7 December 2018)

- One year after the Al-Aqaba Village Council, east of Tubas in northeastern West Bank, filed an appeal with an Israeli court in an attempt to save the village's water network, the court decided to deny it. The network is about six kilometers long, and provides running water to more than seventy homes in addition to various public buildings and facilities. The water network is essential for more than 400 Palestinians, and the Village Council received the first demolition notice a year ago, and instantly filed an appeal. (IMEMC 7 December 2018)
- The Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) attacked the weekly protest against the Annexation Wall and Colonies, in Kufur Qaddoum, east of the northern West Bank city of Qalqilia. The IOA shot live ammunition and tear-gas canisters at the peaceful citizens, causing many to suffer the effects of tear-gas inhalation. (IMEMC 7 December 2018)
- At least 33 Palestinian protesters were shot and injured by Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) at the Great March of Return in the Gaza Strip. Protesters were shot at with live ammunition and rubber-coated steel bullets as they approached the barbed-wire perimeter fence. Of the 33 shot, one protester was critically injured, while many others suffered the suffocating effects of tear gas. (IMEMC 7 December 2018)
- The Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) wounded 72 Palestinian civilians, including 11 children, 1 woman and 2 paramedics in the peaceful demonstrations in the eastern Gaza Strip despite the decreasing intensity of the demonstrations there for the sixth week consecutively and absence of most means usually used during the demonstrations since the beginning of the Return and Breaking the Siege March 7 months ago. For the fifth week since the beginning of the Return March on 30 March 2018, the demonstrators abstained from burning tires while the attempts to cross the border fence and throw stones and incendiary balloons were completely absent. (IMEMC 7 December 2018)

Israeli Arrests

- Israeli authorities, banned Jerusalem's Governor, Adnan Gheith, from entry into the West Bank, for six consecutive months. Gheith was summoned to al-Maskobieh detention and interrogation center, where he was handed a military order banning him entry to the West Bank for six consecutive months. The order, issued by the so-called Israeli Military Central Command Chief Major General Nadav Padan, bans Gheith from entering and staying in the West Bank unless granted a permission by Padan himself. the ban was ordered under the pretext of participation in "illegal and violent activities". (IMEMC 7 December 2018)
- The Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) conducted violent searches of many homes, and interrogated several Palestinians, before detaining at least three. The detained Palestinians have been identified as Ammar Abed-Rabbo al-Khatib, the brother of a political prisoner, identified as Amer al-Khatib, from Hizma village, east of Jerusalem. It is worth mentioning that Amer is the son of Atef, who is a political prisoner, held by Israel. (IMEMC 7 December 2018)
- The Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) invaded and searched homes in al-Mughayyir village, northeast of Ramallah, in central West Bank, and detained two young men, identified as Mohammad Nidal Abu Alia and Amer Atef Hussein Abu Alia. (IMEMC 7 December 2018)

Home Demolition & Demolition threats

- The Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) invaded al-'Isawiya town, in occupied East Jerusalem, stormed many neighborhoods, and photographed many homes, buildings and streets, before handing demolition orders targeting several buildings, and summoned many owners for interrogation. The IOA and personnel of Jerusalem City Council, posted orders for the demolition of several homes and buildings, which were constructed many years ago. The IOA also summoned the owners for interrogation, for "building them without permits." the owners have been paying high fines to the City Council, and have already submitted licensing applications despite the excessively high costs, and are still awaiting a response. (IMEMC 7 December 2018)
