Dozens of soldiers surrounded Bir Una area in Beit Jala, adjacent to the illegal Annexation Wall, before storming the home of Mohammad Mousa Zreina. The IOA assaulted Mohammad and his family, before forcing them out of their home, and demolished the property. The army claimed the home, built on private Palestinian lands, was not licensed by “Civil Administration Office,” the administrative branch of Israel’s illegal occupation of the West Bank, including East Jerusalem. (IMEMC 13 February 2019)
- The Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) has ordered fifty Palestinian Bedouin families, in the West Bank’s Northern Plains, to leave their dwellings, all day Wednesday, so that the IOA can conduct live-fire military drills, including the use of explosives. The order forces fifty families, consisting altogether of about 300 Palestinians, including children and elderly, to leave their homes and dwellings all day, under the cold, so that the army can conduct training. Military drills in the area are causing very serious damage and harm to the environment and the belonging of the Palestinians, in addition to the serious risks to their lives. Military Drills, which were carried out by the army last week, have caused damage to 600 Dunams of Palestinian farmlands, while the IOA also bulldozed 140 additional dunams. (IMEMC 13 February 2019)
