Brutality of the Israeli Occupation Army

- A Palestinian teacher was shot and injured by Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) during raids of the al-Eesawiyya neighborhood in occupied East Jerusalem. The IOA raided the neighborhood as Palestinian students and teachers made their way back home from school. One teacher was shot and injured in her hand after the IOA repeatedly fired rubber-coated steel bullets and stun grenades across al-Eesawiyya. (IMEMC 25 February 2019)

- ISM and members of the press targeted and attacked with teargas and concussion grenades at peaceful protest in Al-Khalil (Hebron). Peaceful demonstrators gathered at the checkpoint to the closed historical Shuhada street, asking for an increased international presence and for re-entry into Shuhada street. Shortly after, the Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) escalated the demonstration with brute force, illegally entering the Palestinian H1 side of Hebron, attacking children with rubber coated steel bullets and grenades, and eventually kidnapping one youth. (MEMC 25 February 2019)
- The Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) carried out military trainings on lands of At Taybeh and Anin villages west of Jenin city. Military trainings were also carried out inside Al Jalameh military base. (MEMC 25 February 2019)
- The Israeli occupation Army (IOA) threatened residents of Hizma town, northeast of occupied Jerusalem, and distributed leaflets in the streets threatening residents under the pretext of hurling stones at the cars of Israeli settlers. The IOA stormed the town with four military jeeps and a number of infantry soldiers, who searched cars and pedestrians, amid firing of sound bombs, and then closed the main entrance of the town and prevented vehicles and citizens from moving through it. (Wafa 25 February 2019)

Israeli Settler Violence

- Israeli settlers, seized a large area of Palestinian land in the northern Jordan Valley. The settlers placed barbed wire around the seized land, estimated in the hundreds of dunams, in Khillet al-Oqda and al-Sweideh area of the Jordan Valley. (MEMC 25 February 2019)
- An Israeli settler surrounded hundreds of dunams of Palestinian lands with an electric fence in the al-Sweida area in the Jordan Valley, under armed security by Israeli occupation Army (IOA). The settler had set up 3 tents in the area several months ago and used them for cattle. (Maannews)
- The Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) installed surveillance cameras on all confiscated lands -- more than 600 dunams -- under procedures to prevent dozens of Palestinians from reaching their lands. Israel considers these lands under the “Absentee Property.” (Maannews 25 February 2019)

Home Demolition & Demolition threats
