Brutality of the Israeli Occupation Army

- The Israeli occupation Army (IOA) shot a young Palestinian man east of Beit Hanoun, in the northern part of the Gaza Strip. The IOA opened fire at a Palestinian, in his twenties, and injured him in the leg. The wounded Palestinian suffered a moderate injury. Dozens of Palestinians also protested at night near the perimeter fence, especially east of Jabalia refugee camp, in northern Gaza, and the army fired many high-velocity gas bombs and several rounds of live ammunition. (IMEMC 27 February 2019)

- Several children of a kindergarten in the central West Bank city of Ramallah suffered the severe effects of teargas inhalation, after Israeli occupation Army (IOA) invaded the city, and fire gas bombs. The IOA invaded Ramallah at-Tihta area, and stormed the homes of Zakariya Zobeidi, a member of the Revolutionary Council of Fateh Movement, and Lawyer Tareq Barghouth, who works with the Palestinian Detainees' Committee, and detained them. The IOA then fired many gas bombs and concussion grenades at Palestinian protesters in the area, some striking the kindergarten there, causing many children to suffer the effects of teargas inhalation. The PRCS medics rushed to the kindergarten, and the IOA tried to stop them. (IMEMC 27 February 2019)
- The Israeli occupation Army (IOA) attacked hundreds of Palestinian workers who gathered at the narrow corridor of Checkpoint 300, north of the southern West Bank city of Bethlehem, that leads to Jerusalem, causing suffocation. The IOA manning the checkpoint fired tear gas canisters towards the workers after they protested their ill-treatment as they try to pass through the checkpoint, on their way to work in Israel, causing dozens to suffocate from excessive tear gas inhalation. The IOA closed the checkpoint following the protest, denying workers access to their workplaces. (IMEMC 27 February 2019)

Israeli Arrests

- The Israeli occupation Army (IOA) summoned for interrogation, a Palestinian child and a teacher from occupied Jerusalem. The child, identified as Abdul-Rahman Bilal Mahmoud, 11, was summoned for interrogation after the IOA invaded his home in al-'Isawiya town, and detained his brother Hasan. The IOA also summoned for interrogation a teacher, identified as Khadija 'Oweiss, who is a former political prisoner, and was frequently detained and interrogated by the police, for protesting the ongoing Israeli violations, and invasion into the Al-Aqsa Mosque. (IMEMC 27 February 2019)

- The Israeli occupation Army (IOA) detained twenty-two Palestinians, including the governor of occupied Jerusalem, Adnan Gheith, and a lawyer, identified as Midhat Deebiyya, from their homes Silwan and the al-'Isawiya towns. The IOA conducted very violent searches of homes, and interrogated dozens of Palestinians, before detaining 22 of them, and took them to the al-Maskobiyya detention and interrogation facility, in Jerusalem. The detentions have escalated since the Palestinians managed to reopen Bab ar-Rahma Mosque, last Friday, after it was closed by Israeli Government for sixteen years. The detained Palestinians have been identified as: Adnan Gheith. Midhat Deeriyya. Mansur Mahmoud. Ali Abu Ryala. Hasan Bilal Mahmoud. Mahmoud Dirbas. Moayyad Badr. Jamal Saleh Mustafa. Israeli Settler Violence

- The Israeli Minister of Agriculture, Uri Ariel, stormed the Al-Aqsa Mosque compound in occupied East Jerusalem, under protection of armed Israeli occupation Army (IOA). Ariel was heading a group of Israeli settlers into the Al-Aqsa compound via the Moroccan Gate, which has been under Israeli control since the occupation of Jerusalem City. Ariel took footage of the al-Rahma Gate (Gate of Mercy) prayer area that was opened recently. Israeli police forces, who were deployed around al-Rahma prayer area since the early morning hours, took footage of Palestinian guards who opened the area. (IMEMC 27 February 2019)
- The Israeli occupation Army (IOA) prevented Palestinians from farming their lands in Jaloud village, to the south of Nablus, in the north of the West Bank. The land is located within Area B, which is administered by the Palestinian Authority but under Israeli military security, and adjacent to Ahiya settlement outpost. (IMEMC 27 February 2019)

Confiscation & Razing of lands

- A number of Israeli settlers, escorted by troops, have confiscated a large area of Palestinian land, in the northern Jordan Valley of the occupied West Bank. The group placed barbed wire and electric fence around more than 600 dunams (0.6 square kilometers) of Palestinian-owned land in the Khillet al-Oqda and al-Sweideh areas of the valley, which comprises a third of the occupied West Bank. Israeli troops have also installed surveillance cameras on the seized land. (IMEMC 27 February 2019)
- The Israeli occupation Army (IOA) razed, with heavy machinery, 50 Olive seedlings in a land belonging to Muhammad Jaber Ad Dababseh in Khallet Ad Dabe' area in Yatta town south of Hebron. (WAFA 27 February 2019)

Erection of Israeli checkpoints

- The Israeli occupation Army (IOA) invaded many neighborhoods in Hebron city, and installed roadblocks in Jouret Bahlas area, in addition to the entrances of Ethna and Halhoul towns, before stopping and searching dozens of cars, and interrogated many Palestinians while inspecting their ID cards.
