- The Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) injured many nonviolent protesters in during the weekly procession against the illegal Annexation Wall and Colonies, in Ni'lin village, west of the central West Bank city of Ramallah. The locals, accompanied by Israeli and international peace activists, marched from the center of the village and headed to the Palestinians orchards while chanting against the ongoing illegal occupation, the Annexation Wall and colonies, in addition to condemning the so-called "Deal of the Century." The IOA fired many live rounds, rubber-coated steel bullets, gas bombs and concussion grenades, causing many to suffer the effects of teargas inhalation. (IMEMC 14 June 2019)
- The Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) attacked a weekly procession in Azmout village, east of the northern West Bank city of Nablus, causing many Palestinians to suffer the severe effects of teargas inhalation. The residents marched to their lands to protest the Israeli decision to annex 20 Dunams of Palestinian orchards and farmlands located in Azmout and Deir al-Hatab villages. The army confiscated the Palestinian lands to pave a new military road, and to annex them to the Elon Moreh settlement During the procession, the IOA fired a barrage of gas bombs and concussion grenades, causing many to suffer the effects of teargas inhalation, in addition to causing fire in surrounding lands. ## Israeli Settler Violence

- Israeli settlers from the nearby Yitzhar settlement vandalized Palestinian homes in Einabous village, South of Nablus city, in the northern West Bank, as well as a local mosque, and clinic. The settlers slashed the tires of 2 Palestinian owned vehicles, spray-painted the star of David on the mosque, clinic, and homes, along with racist, anti-Palestinian slogans spray-painted in Hebrew. (IMEMC 14 June 2019)
- In an attack that took place, on June 5th, Israeli settlers were caught on surveillance recordings attacking a Palestinian school, and burning olive orchards, in Jaloud village, southeast of the northern West Bank city of Nablus. The cameras show around 10 colonists throwing stones and invading a Palestinian school in the village, before smashing the windows of its small canteen. The children in the school are also seen running away for shelter, to protect themselves from the invading colonists. The school is located near Palestinian orchards, that separate it from an Israeli settlement. The assailants attacked the school approximately at 10:30 in the morning, when they started throwing stones, before invading it and damaging the small canteen in the school, while the Palestinian children as seen trying to escape the assault. Shortly after attacking the school, the settlers invaded nearby Palestinian lands, and set them ablaze. The fire spread fast before the Palestinian firefighters rushed to the area, and started extinguishing it. Resident Malek Mahmoud Fawzi, who is one of the family members who own the orchards, said the trees were planted 65 years ago, and that the area contained around 1500 trees; nearly 500 of them were burnt. (IMEMC 14 June 2019)
- Israeli settlers hurled stones at Palestinian cars in Yasuf village, southwest of Nablus, in addition to smashing the windows of a home while the family was inside, and also broke the windows of their cars and attempted to burn property. (IMEMC 14 June 2019)
- A large group of Israeli Settlers raided Solomon's pools between Al Khader and Artas Villages south of Bethlehem city for the second day on a row and carried out Talmudic Rituals. (Wafa 14 June 2019)

Expansion of settlements

- In occupied East Jerusalem, Israeli authorities constructed a metal fence with barbed wire, on Sultan Suleiman Street, near the Damascus Gate of the Al Aqsa Mosque compound. The fence was placed around the perimeter of the stairs leading to the ancient Damascus Gate; a bulldozer was also reportedly seen digging. The Israeli occupation forces will remove trees and tiles from the area, and continue construction inside the garden and close to nearby caves. (IMEMC 14 June 2019)
