Brutality of the Israeli Occupation Army

- The Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) attacked the weekly procession against the Annexation Wall and colonies in Kufur Qaddoum town, east of the northern West Bank city of Qalqilia, wounding ten Palestinians, including a journalist. The protesters nonviolently marched from the center of the village, while chanting against the ongoing illegal Israeli occupation and its colonies, in addition to the Manama Conference, and the so-called “Deal of the Century.” The IOA resorted to the excessive use of force against the protesters, wounding a child, 17 years of age, with a rubber-coated steel bullet, leading to fractures in his jaw. The IOA also shot a journalist, identified as Nidal Eshteyya, with two rubber-coated steel bullets. Eight other Palestinians were injured by rubber-coated steel bullets, or suffered the effects of teargas inhalation. (IMEMC 29 June 2019)
- The Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) injured more than fifty Palestinians, in an invasion into the al-Isawiya town, north of occupied East Jerusalem, starting on Friday evening, when the army killed a young man, until dawn hours, Saturday. 50 Palestinians were injured; 37 of them were shot with rubber-coated steel bullets, 7 suffered the effects of teargas inhalation, and six others who suffered fractures or bruises. The IOA surrounded the town and installed many military roadblocks, before searching its ambulances, and prevented some of them from entering it. The IOA also searched many cars, and interrogated the Palestinians while inspecting their ID cards. The IOA closed and isolated Be’er Ayyoub neighborhood, while many local youngsters hurled stones at them, and some threw Molotov cocktails and used fireworks against the invading army. Furthermore, the IOA detained many Palestinians youngsters, and took them to several detention and interrogation center in Jerusalem. (IMEMC 29 June 2019)
