Brutality of the Israeli Occupation Army

- Several army jeeps invaded Khallet Makhoul community, in the Northern Plains of the West Bank, and photographed the homes and structures. It is worth mentioning that the village is subject to frequent invasions and violations, and many of its homes and structures were demolished several times; most recently two years ago. (IMEMC 10 October 2019)
- Israeli police officers invaded Bab ar-Rahma Mosque, in the Al-0Aqsa Mosque Compound in occupied East Jerusalem and confiscated wooden dividers. The officers attacked many Palestinians and threatened to detain and imprison them if they do not leave the holy site. Officers also chased and attempted to detain Palestinians, who were using their smart phones to capture the invasions on video. (IMEMC 10 October 2019)

Israeli Arrests

- The Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) invaded Doura town, south of Hebron, before storming and ransacking several homes, and detained three Palestinians. The detained Palestinians were identified as Ahmad Ishaq Abu Hashhash, Bara' Ismael al-Masalma, and Eyad Raed al-Masalma. (IMEMC 10 October 2019)
- The Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) invaded the Eastern Neighborhood in Jenin city, and detained Sultan Kamal Sa'adi, after storming his home and searching it. (IMEMC 10 October 2019)
- The Ofer military court sentenced Palestinian prisoner Ra'ed Badwan, from the village of Biddu in Occupied Jerusalem, to 18 years in jail and ordered him to pay a 500,000 shekel penalty. Prisoner Badwan has been in detention since August 6, 2015 and has attended over 56 court sessions since then. He suffered from multiple injuries when Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) showered his cars with bullets on allegations of his attempt to carry out a car-ramming attack on Road 60 in northern Ramallah. As a result, 12 bullets penetrated different parts of his body and doctors managed to remove only six bullets. (PALINFO 10 October 2019)

Israeli Settler Violence

- The Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) and police officers, accompanied dozens of settlers into the al-Aqsa Mosque compound, after forcing the Palestinian away, and conducted provocative tours. (IMEMC 10 October 2019)
- An Israeli settler, driving at high speed, rammed a young Palestinian woman near the al-'Arroub refugee camp, north of the southern West Bank city of Hebron. The incident took place on the Jerusalem-Hebron Road, in the section near the al-'Arroub refugee camp. (IMEMC 10 October 2019)
- Israeli settlers seized a water spring in Ein el-Hilweh in the northern Jordan Valley. Settlers seized the water spring and then immediately started restoration work on it. They also prevented people from watering their crops from the spring, which they have been doing to decades. (WAFA 10 October 2019)

Home Demolition & Demolition threats

- The Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) handed a halt on construction order against a structure in Homsa in the Jordan Valley. (WAFA 10 October 2019)
- The Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) informed Khaled Mashhour of their intention to demolish his residential tent, where he lives along with his family, in addition to informing Mohammad al-Hathalin of their intention to demolish his shed. (IMEMC 10 October 2019)
- In occupied Jerusalem, the Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) invaded the al-Mintar area, in the Sawahra village, east of the city, and informed the residents of their intention to remove two protest tents, which were

- installed by the locals who were protesting a new illegal Israeli colonialist outpost on their land. (IMEMC 10 October 2019)
- The Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) invaded Khirbat ad-Daqeeqa small community, east of Yatta town, south of the southern West Bank city of Hebron, and demolished several residential sheds, in addition to confiscating solar panels. The IOA demolished many residential sheds and structures in Shu'ab al-Harathen area in the ad-Daqeeqa community. The IOA also confiscated solar panels, used for generating electricity by Jamil Mahmoud Najajra, and his son Mahmoud. (IMEMC 10 October 2019)
 - The Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) demolished two Palestinian homes in Kisan village, east of the West Bank city of Bethlehem, south of occupied East Jerusalem in the West Bank. Many army vehicles, including bulldozers, invaded the village and demolished two homes. One of the demolished homes was 150 square meters, and was owned by Ayman Yacoub Ghazal along with his family of four. The second home, 120 square meters, was under construction, and was owned by Ayman's brother, Amjad. Twenty days ago, the army handed the family demolition orders targeting their homes, under the pretext of not being licensed by the so-called "Civil Administration Office," the administrative branch of Israel's illegal military occupation. The properties received the needed permits from the Local Council in the village. Many Palestinians protested the invasion and demolitions, and the IOA fired a barrage of gas bombs, concussion grenades, and rubber-coated steel bullets, causing many, especially children on their way to school, to suffer the effects of teargas inhalation. (IMEMC 10 October 2019)
 - Israeli occupation authorities (IOA) issued demolition orders against two tents and a shed in al-Muntar area of al-Sawahreh, to the east of occupied Jerusalem. The IOA raided the area and handed the order to remove a tent set up by activists to protest the construction of an Israeli settlement outpost planned in the same area. Another resident of al-Muntar was told by the Israeli army that the tent he has set up as a residence for his family is going to be demolished. Additionally, a shed owner was also given a notice of demolition. (Wafa 10 October 2019)

- Israeli occupation authorities (IOA) demolished a number of sheds and tents and seized solar panels in the village of Khirbet a-Daqqah, in Masafer Yatta in the south of the occupied West Bank. An Israeli army bulldozer demolished several tin sheds in Shaab al-Harathin area and seized solar panels that were used to light homes. (Wafa 10 October 2019)

Confiscation & Razing of lands

- The Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) razed Palestinian lands in al-Himma in the northern Jordan Valley. The razing took place on lands near an Israeli settlement outpost in al-Himma area without any reason. (Wafa 10 October 2019)
