- The Israeli government officially decided to bar two newly-elected Muslim US congresswomen; Rashida Tlaib, of Palestinian origin, and Ilhan Omar, of Somali origin, from entering Israel ahead of an expected visit that was planned to start, according to a statement by Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu. US President Donald Trump has also incited Israel to ban entry of the two US congresswomen. The newly-elected Muslim Democratic members of Congress are outspoken critics of Israel's treatment of the Palestinians and support the global boycott movement against Israel, Boycott, Divestment and Sanctions (BDS). Tlaib was born in Detroit after her parents, former residents of the Israeli-occupied West Bank, immigrated to the US. Omar was born in Somalia and immigrated to the US at a young age and became a naturalized American citizen. (Wafa 15 August 2019)
