Brutality of the Israeli Occupation Army

- Armored Israeli bulldozers carried out a small-scale incursion into the east of Khan Younis, south of the Gaza Strip. Two bulldozers advanced from a military post behind the security fence in a border area in the east of Khan Younis and embarked on leveling tracts of land. (PALINFO 16 September 2019)

Israeli Arrests

- The Israeli occupation authorities have issued a four-month administrative detention order against the Jordanian detainee Abdulrahman Mar'i, 29. Mar'i was detained on 2 September at al-Karama crossing between Jordan and the West Bank. Mar'i is suffering from a brain tumor and he has undergone many surgeries since 2010. Nearly 24 Jordanian prisoners are currently held in Israeli jails under harsh conditions. (PALINFO 16 September 2019)
- The Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) assaulted a Palestinian child in the town of al-'Isawiya, in occupied East Jerusalem, and detained him. The IOA Assaulted the child, identified as Nabil Mohammad Abu al-Hummus, 12, while he was walking to a shop near his home. The IOA then detained the child and took him to a detention facility in Jerusalem, after alleging that he hurled stones at their jeep. The IOA also attacked the child's father while he was trying to talk to them and was telling them Nabil is just a child who was going to the shop. (IMEMC 16 September 2019)
- The Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) invaded the old city of Jerusalem and detained Faiza Ziyada, from her home. (IMEMC 16 September 2019)

Home Demolition & Demolition threats

- The Israeli occupation Army (IOA) demolished one Palestinian house and two agricultural rooms as well as fences and a road in al-Walaja village, northwest of Bethlehem. The bulldozers escorted by the IOA stormed the area of Ein Juwaiza and Khilat al-Hour and demolished a house belonging to a local resident called Mustafa Abd Rabo. The IOA also knocked down two structures used for agricultural purposes belonging to a woman from the village as well as concrete fences of two homes belonging to other villagers. A road was also bulldozed in the village by the IOF during the demolition campaign. (PALINFO 16 September 2019)

Israeli Closures

- The Israeli occupation army (IOA) will impose a complete closure on the West Bank and Gaza Strip crossings during the Knesset elections. "Based on the security situation evaluation and directives of the political authority, a complete closure will be imposed on the West Bank areas and Gaza Strip crossings," a spokesman for the Israeli army said in a statement. The army explained that the closure would begin at 12:00 a.m. Tuesday and last for 24 hours, pending a situational assessment. (PALINFO 16 September 2019)

Other

- The Israeli government approved its proposal to legalize an outpost in the Jordan Valley two days before the Knesset election after its attorney general agreed to retract his opposition. However, the final approval for legalizing the outpost will be made by the next government. "The government will decide on kick-starting the process of establishing the settlement of Mevo'ot Yeriho in the Jordan Valley," said Israeli premier Benjamin Netanyahu at the cabinet meeting, which was held in the outpost. "The final approval will of course be given upon the formation of the new government," he said. (PALINFO 16 September 2019)
- The health condition of the Palestinian prisoner Sultan Khalaf, who has been on hunger strike for 62 days in Israeli jails, has seriously deteriorated. Khalaf, a resident of Jenin in the West Bank, started an open-ended hunger strike 62 days ago protesting his administrative detention without charge or trial. Israeli occupation authorities detained Khalaf on 8 July 2019 and 10 days later he started a hunger strike after he was sentenced to extendable six months without indictment or trial.
