Brutality of the Israeli Occupation Army

- The Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) invaded Einabus Palestinian village, south of the northern West Bank city of Nablus, and shot two Palestinians with rubber-coated steel bullets in addition to causing many to suffer the effects of teargas inhalation after Israeli settlers attacked homes. Several army jeeps invaded the village after the residents intercepted and clashed with settlers who invaded their community, and attacked a few homes. The IOA started firing gas bombs and rubber-coated steel bullets at the Palestinians, wounding two with rubber-coated steel bullets and causing scores to suffer the effects of teargas inhalation. The IOA shot Suleiman Hasan Abu Sa'da and Miladi Hasan Miladi with rubber-coated steel bullets, and caused dozens to suffer the effects of teargas inhalation. (IMEMC 17 September 2019)
- The Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) assaulted an elderly Palestinian at an army checkpoint to northwest of Ramallah. The IOA stationed at a checkpoint outside the village of Deir Nitham, stopped a car driven by Saleh Tamimi, 52, and forced him out of his car before they started beating him for no apparent reason. Tamimi became unconscious and was quickly transported, by village residents, to hospital in Ramallah. The Israeli army has, for several days, closed two access roads to Deir Nitham, and has established a permanent checkpoint on the third access road, where residents say they are regularly harassed by the IOA manning the checkpoint. (IMEMC 17 September 2019)
- The Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) invaded, the village of Taybeh, west of the northern West Bank city of Jenin, and fired many gas bombs at protesters, causing several Palestinians to suffer the effects of teargas inhalation. The IOA fired a barrage of gas bombs at random, causing many Palestinians, including families in their homes, to suffer the effects of teargas inhalation. The village, especially the homes near the Separation Wall, witness frequent Israeli invasions and violations. (IMEMC 17 September 2019)

- The Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) invaded the northern West Bank city of Jenin, and violently searched the homes of Qussai Sa'adi and Monjid Thieb Jaber, while interrogating them and their families. (IMEMC 17 September 2019)
- The Israeli occupation Army (IOA) detained two Palestinian youths near Ein Bubin area, west of the West Bank city of Ramallah, over alleged knife possession. The Israeli website "0404" claimed that two Palestinians were arrested near Ein Bubin on suspicion of attempting a knife attack. The detainees were later transferred to an Israeli interrogation center. (PALINFO 17 September 2019)
- The Israeli occupation navy opened fire at Palestinian fishermen and their boat off the coast of central Gaza. An Israeli gunboat attacked the fishermen as they were working within nine nautical miles off the coast of Wadi Gaza area. The naval forces opened fire at the fishing boat and forced the fishermen aboard it to leave their net behind in the water and retreat to the permitted fishing zone, which is six nautical miles off the shores of Gaza. Israeli Arrests

- The Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) detained a young Palestinian man from his home in 'Aida refugee camp, north of the West Bank city of Bethlehem. The IOA invaded and ransacked the home of Mohammad Mahmoud Ja'ara, 22, and detained him. The IOA were heavily deployed in various streets and alleys in the refugee camp and interrogated several Palestinians while inspecting their ID cards. (IMEMC 17 September 2019)
- Six Palestinian detainees being held in Israeli prisons are continuing an open-ended hunger strike against their arbitrary administrative detention without charge or trial. Five of them are languishing in al-Ramla prison clinic. The six detainees are identified as: 42-year-old Ahmad Ghannam, a resident of Dura city, to the southwest of Hebron; entered his 65th day of hunger strike. 38-year-old Sultan Khallouf, a resident of Burqin town, to the west of Jenin; entered his 61st day of hunger strike. 30-year-old Ismael Ali, a resident of Abu Dis village, in occupied Jerusalem; entered his 55th day of hunger strike. 46-year-old Tariq Qa'dan, a resident of the Jenin Governorate; entered his 48th day of hunger strike. 31-year-old Nasser al-Jada', a resident of Burqin town, to the west of Jenin; entered his 41st day of hunger strike. 30-year-old Thaer Hamdan, a resident of Beit Sira village, to the west of Ramallah; entered his 36th day of hunger strike. (IMEMC 17 September 2019)

Israeli Settler Violence

- Scores of Jewish settlers desecrated the Aqsa Mosque's courtyards under tight police protection. Dozens of settlers carried out provocative tours at the Mosque and received explanations about the alleged temple mount. The Israeli occupation police close al-Maghariba Gate, which is used by Jews to enter the Mosque, at 10:30 am after the settlers complete their morning tours at the holy site. Later in the afternoon, the same gate is reopened for evening tours by settlers. During the presence of settlers inside the Mosque compound, entry restrictions are imposed on Muslim worshipers at the entrances leading to the Mosque and their IDs are seized until they leave the holy place. (PALINFO 17 September 2019)
- A group of Israeli settlers attacked a number of Palestinian homes in the south of Nablus in the occupied West Bank. Dozens of settlers attacked the homes of citizens with stones in the northern area of Einabus village, south of Nablus, adding that local residents managed to fend off the assailants.
- A group of settlers stormed Duma village in southern Nablus, slashed tires of some cars and spray-painted death threats and racist slurs on a house's wall. (PALINFO 17 September 2019)
