Brutality of the Israeli Occupation Army

- The Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) invaded the town of al-'Isawiya, in occupied East Jerusalem, before storming many stores, and forced them to close. Many army jeeps invaded the town, before the IOA stopped and harassed many Palestinians, while inspecting their ID cards and searching them. The IOA invaded many shops in the town, and attacked several shop owners, before forcing them to close and leave. The Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) invaded and ransacked many homes in the town and detained nine Palestinians. (IMEMC 28 October 2019)
- Israeli military vehicles infiltrated the Gaza border and reached dozens of meters into Palestinian land east of Jabalya in the north of the Gaza Strip. The military vehicles razed agricultural land and erected sand barricades along the border amidst intermittent shooting. (Wafa 28 October 2019)

Israeli Arrests

- The Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) detained two Palestinians, including a liberated prisoner from Tulkarem. The IOA detained the young Husni Hassan Abu Shanab and the liberated prisoner Qassam Riad Bedair. The detentions came after the IOA raided and searched the houses of the two men. Both detainees are 34 years old. The troops also raided and searched a number of Palestinian houses in the village of Qufin in the north, while no casualties were reported. (IMEMC 28 October 2019)
- Four Palestinian administrative detainees in Israel remain on hunger strike against their indefinite incarceration without charge or trial, including one who has been consistently refusing food for 97 days in a row. Ismail Ali, from Abu Dis, to the east of Jerusalem, has been on hunger strike for 97 days, today. The Israeli High Court, yesterday, rejected his petition for release. Ali's health has seriously deteriorated, due to his long fast. Another administrative detainee, Hiba Labadi, a Jordanian citizen who has been on hunger strike for 35 days, also in protest against her administrative detention without charge or trial, was transferred to hospital following a deterioration in her health. Labadi was arrested upon her arrival at Allenby Bridge crossing with Jordan, on her way into the West Bank, and has been on hunger strike since then, protesting her torture and detention. A third hunger striker, Ahmad Zahran, who has been fasting for 37 days, has had his administrative detention order extended by four more months, two days before his current one was supposed to end. The fourth is Musab Hindi, who has been on hunger strike for 35 days, also demanding his release from administrative detention. (IMEMC 28 October 2019)

- The Israeli occupation Army (IOA) raided al-Isawiya town in Jerusalem and forced Palestinian citizens to close their shops. The IOA deployed in large numbers in the town, forced shop owners to close their stores, and searched the pedestrians. (PALINFO 28 October 2019)
- The Israeli occupation Army (IOA) detained a Palestinian youth in Qalqilya City. The IOA detained Ibrahim Zaid, 21, at a checkpoint in the southern area of Qalqilya. The detainee was transferred to an undeclared destination. (PALINFO 28 October 2019)

Israeli Settler Violence

- Several Israeli settlers infiltrated into Huwwara town, south of the northern West Bank city of Nablus, and wrote racist graffiti on the walls of a Palestinian home. Israeli settlers wrote graffiti on the walls of one home. The home is owned by Sabri Najib Nassar and is located near the junction leading to Nablus-Qalqilia roads. (IMEMC 28 October 2019)
- Dozens of Jewish settlers defiled al-Aqsa Mosque in Jerusalem under heavy police guard. 62 Israeli settlers roamed al-Aqsa Mosque's courtyards in the early morning hours while receiving presentations on the alleged Temple Mount. The settlers further performed Talmudic rituals in the eastern area of the Mosque, while tight restrictions were imposed on the Palestinian worshipers entering the site. (PALINFO 28 October 2019)

Home Demolition & Demolition threats

- The Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) invaded Thaher al-Maleh village, isolated behind the illegal Annexation Wall, west of the northern West

Bank city of Jenin, and demolished a wall of a local school. A large military force, accompanied by armored bulldozers, invaded the area surrounding the Tahadi 17 School, and declared it a closed zone. The IOA forcibly removed the Palestinians from the area and demolished a section of one of its external walls. (IMEMC 28 October 2019)

- The Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) demolished part of the wall of a school in the village of Thahr al-Maleh, located in Area C and isolated behind Israel's separation barrier, and seized a container. An Israeli army force raided the village and declared the school a closed military zone, adding that they prevented students and their families from reaching the school before proceeding to demolish part of its external wall. The IOA also seized a container the school was using as a cafeteria for the students and teachers. (Wafa 28 October 2019)

Israeli Closures

- The Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) closed the main entrance of the al-'Arroub refugee camp which links with the Jerusalem-Hebron road, north of the southern West Bank city of Hebron, and assaulted many Palestinian protesters. The IOA prevented the Palestinians from entering or leaving the refugee camp, and closed the nearby junction, blocking traffic on the main road. Many Palestinians protested the invasion and the closure, and the IOA fired a barrage of gas bombs and concussion grenades, causing many Palestinians to suffer the effects of teargas inhalation. (IMEMC 28 October 2019)
- The Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) installed a sudden military roadblock at the main entrance of Hibla town, south of the northern West Bank city of Qalqilia, before stopping and searching many cars, and detained one Palestinian, identified as Ibrahim Jamal Zeid, 21. (IMEMC 28 October 2019)
