Brutality of the Israeli Occupation Army

- The Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) injured several schoolchildren in the schools' area, south of Hebron city, in the southern part of the occupied West Bank. Several army jeeps invaded the Schools' Area and fired gas bombs at the students who were walking to their educational facilities. Many students suffered the effects of teargas inhalation. The IOA repeatedly invade the Schools' area in southern Hebron, and frequently surround the schools or attack the students, which in some cases leads in protests and throwing stones at the army jeeps. The students in that area are also frequently attacked and harassed by the illegal colonialist settlers. (IMEMC 3 November 2019)
- The Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) invaded Palestinian olive orchards between Burin and Huwwara towns, south of Nablus, and forced the Palestinians out, in addition to threatening them with "binging the settlers to attack them." (IMEMC 3 November 2019)
- The Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) shot a young man at the military gate of the illegal Annexation Wall, installed on Palestinian lands in Aneen village, west of the northern West Bank city of Jenin. The Palestinian was identified as Mohammad Ahmad Jaradat, 32, with a live round in his left leg. The IOA was shot the Palestinian while trying to enter Jerusalem for work, and later handed him to its medics before he was rushed to Jenin Governmental Hospital. (IMEMC 3 November 2019)
- The Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) resorted to the excessive use of force against dozens of Palestinians, holding a nonviolent protest in solidarity with the hunger-striking detainees in Israeli prisons, and detained a journalist, in occupied Jerusalem. The IOA attacked dozens of Palestinians who were nonviolent protesting in Salahuddin Street, in Jerusalem. The IOA and mounted police officers, assaulted and clubbed several nonviolent protesters, and started pushing them away. The IOA also detained one journalist, identified as Ahmad Safadi, and took him to an interrogation facility. Earlier Saturday, The Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) invaded the home of the detained journalist in Salahuddin Street, and searched it. The Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) resorted to the excessive use of force against Palestinians, holding a nonviolent activity in solidarity with hunger-striking detainees, in Bab al-'Amoud area in Jerusalem, and abducted three, including one lawyer. The four detainees, held under the illegal Administrative Detention orders without charges, remain on hunger strike against their indefinite incarceration without charge or trial, including one who has been consistently refusing food for 97 days in a row, the Palestinian Prisoners Commission said, today. (IMEMC 3 November 2019)

- Palestinian-Jordanian detainee, Hiba al-Labadi, was moved to a hospital due to various complications, but remains determined to continue the strike. Al-Labadi was arrested upon her arrival at Allenby Bridge crossing with Jordan, on her way into the West Bank, and has been on hunger strike since then, protesting her torture and detention. (IMEMC 3 November 2019)

Israeli Arrests

- Four Palestinian detainees, including a female prisoner, are maintaining their open-ended hunger strike in protest of their illegal imprisonment without charge or trial. The hunger strikers are identified as: 30-year-old prisoner Ismael Ali, a resident of Abu Dis village, in occupied Jerusalem. He has entered his 103rd day of hunger strike. 29-year-old prisoner Musab al-Hindi, a resident of Tell town, southwest of Nablus. He has entered his 41st day of hunger strike, and has been moved to al-Ramleh prison clinic. 42-year-old prisoner Ahmad Zahran has entered his 37th day of hunger strike. 24-year-old Jordanian prisoner Hiba al-Lubadi has entered her 41st day of hunger strike. (IMEMC 3 November 2019)

- The Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) stormed the neighborhood of Suwwana, in occupied Jerusalem, and detained Fadi al-Hadmi, a Palestinian community leader who is a member of the Palestinian government that has worked through non-violent means to assert their sovereignty in the city. While invading al-Hadmi's home Sunday before dawn, The IOA beat, humiliated and brutalized the government minister in front of his family and children before dragging him away. This is the third time that al-Hadmi has been singled out for arrest by Israeli authorities, who claim they have the jurisdiction to arrest Palestinians in the city of Jerusalem. In addition to detaining him, the Israeli authorities have also summoned him for interrogation on at least 12 occasions. (IMEMC 3 November 2019)
- In Jerusalem's Old City, the Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) invaded and searched homes and detained three young Wisam Seder, Yousef al-Hilu and Razaz ar-Razem. (IMEMC 3 November 2019)
- In the area of KHALLET HADOUR in Hebron, in the southern West Bank, Israeli troops detained Mo'men Abu Shamsiya and Ahmad Al-Yamani. (IMEMC 3 November 2019)
- In Bal'a village, east of Tulkarem, in the northern West Bank, the Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) detained Nabil Saleh Awwad Hamdan, 52. (IMEMC 3 November 2019)
- The Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) detained Daoud Zakaria Mousa after they raided his family's house and searched it in Al-Khader village south of Bethlehem. (IMEMC 3 November 2019)

Israeli Settler Violence

- Several Israeli settlers invaded a Palestinian olive orchard, and harvested nearly 300 trees before stealing the produce. The settlers came from Rahalim nearby settlement. The settlers harvested and stole the produce of nearly 300 Palestinian olive trees, before fleeing to their settlement. Once the Palestinians were able to enter their orchards, isolated behind the Annexation Wall, some settlers attacked them and forced them away, while the Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) did not intervene. (IMEMC 3 November 2019)

- Several Israeli settlers invaded a Palestinian orchard in Yasuf village, east of the central West Bank city of Salfit, and stole a donkey, blankets and olive picking tools. (IMEMC 3 November 2019)

Israeli Military Orders

- Israeli occupation authorities (IOA) handed the Palestinian Civil Liaison a notification regarding Israel's intention to size 500 dunams of land which belong to Palestinians from Hizma, with a view of expanding the illegal Israeli settlement of Adam, nearby. (IMEMC 3 November 2019)
- Israeli military handed Palestinians from Majdal Bani Fadel and Douma an order showing the land that is to be confiscated for military purposes. (IMEMC 3 November 2019)
- The Israeli authorities notified the municipality of the town of Yabad, southwest of Jenin in the northern West Bank, of their plan to confiscate around 409 dunams of land for the purpose of continuing the construction of the West Bank separation barrier. (IMEMC 3 November 2019)
- The Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) and the so-called "Israeli Civil Administration Office, has started digging and preparing to pave a new segregated road for Israeli settlers in Beit Ummar town, north of the southern West Bank city of Hebron. The IOA accompanied by several bulldozers and other heavy equipment, started bulldozing and uprooting the privately-owned Palestinian lands near Beit al-Baraka, which is occupied by settlers. Israel is planning to pave a new road passing near Hebron-Jerusalem Road, and that the IOA declared the area "a closed military zone," before preventing the farmers and landowners from entering it. The lands are at least 90 Dunams (22.23 Acres), owned by Palestinians from Safi and Sleibi families, and are planted with olive grapes and almond trees. The new road will pass through several kilometers on private, fertile lands, extending from Etzion Junction, north of Hebron, and passing near Beit al-Baraka in the opposite direction of the al-'Arroub refugee camp, all the way through "Jabal al-Qarn" natural reserve between Beit Ummar and al-'Arroub. The planned road would also extend to Nabi Younis Junction at the southern entrance of Halhoul town, and would eventually lead to the illegal annexation of about 400 Dunams (98.84 acres) of Palestinian lands in Beit Ummar and Halhoul towns. Beit al-Baraka also used to serve as a hospital providing free treatment to people suffering from tuberculosis until it was shut down in 1983. Jewish settlers later bought the compound from the church, through a fake company. (IMEMC 3 November 2019)

Confiscation & Razing of lands

- Israeli army embarked on levelling a Palestinian-owned land near the town of Beit Ummar, to the north of Hebron in the occupied West Bank. The Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) accompanied by heavy machinery proceeded to raze about 400 dunums of Palestinian-owned land near the town, aimed at opening a settler-only road. The land razed belongs to a local Palestinian farmers from the town, and is planted with almonds and grapes. (Wafa 3 November 2019)
