Israeli Arrests

- Four Palestinians were detained from Aida refugee camp in Bethlehem: Marwan Fararja, 18, Omar Emad Radi, Yazan Hamza al-Kurd, 17, and Rami Nasser Assaf, 18. All four teens had previously been imprisoned by Israel without charges under so-called 'administrative detention' and had been released. (IMEMC 5 November 2019)
- Four Palestinians from the Hebron Governorate were detained: Issa Ahmed Ta'amra, 22, former prisoner Hassan Mohammed Hassan, 25, and Adel Ahmed Zaqaq, 16. All three are from Beit Ummar town. Also in the Hebron Governorate, Israeli troops detained Musa Gabriel Musa Omar. (IMEMC 5 November 2019)
- In al-Issawiya, Israeli troops detained Mahmoud Fayez Mahmoud, who is the head of the Parents' Committee of al-Issawiya that has organized a school strike since Saturday, and had just announced a non-violent protest for Tuesday to challenge the daily Israeli invasions of the town. (IMEMC 5 November 2019)
- In al-Issawiya, Israeli troops detained Yousef Ra'ed Abdullah Hamed, 18, Hassan Tayseer Hammad, 18, and Rashad Mohammed. (IMEMC 5 November 2019)
- Israeli authorities in Jerusalem decided to extend the detention of the secretary general of the Fatah movement in al-Issawiya, Yasser Darwish. The targeting and harassment of Palestinian public officials in East Jerusalem has become a commonplace and daily occurrence for Israeli troops. These Palestinian elected officials are generally accused of nothing more than holding a public office. (IMEMC 5 November 2019)
- The Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) detained two mothers of Palestinian prisoners who had come to the prison of Megiddo to visit their children. The mothers of prisoners Wissam Hanoun and Mustafa al-Qunayri were taken into custody by Israeli troops after a scuffle at the entrance to the prison in which the two mothers were beaten. One of them, the mother of Wissam Hanoun, was released later that night without charges. al-Qunayri's mother remains in custody. The two mothers were apparently attempting to bring clothes to their sons in prison, since the Israeli authorities do not provide adequate clothing for the cold nights in the drafty Megiddo prison facility. But the prison officials tried to prevent them from bringing the clothes, and instead detained the two women and took them into custody. (IMEMC 5 November 2019)

- Israeli troops invaded al-Issawiya, in the eastern part of Jerusalem, and attacked schoolchildren, detaining three boys. The IOA stormed the village, deployed troops throughout the streets and began firing tear gas into the streets and residences. The IOA also grabbed 3 boys from Mheisen neighborhood in al-Issawiya town and put them into their armored military vehicles to take to an interrogation center. The three boys were identified as Omar Mahmoud, Ismail Mheisen, and Wasim Dari from the village, during the storming and deployment in the streets. (IMEMC 5 November 2019)

Israeli Settler Violence

- Israeli settlers stole the olive harvest of Palestinian farmers in the village of al-Lubban al-Sharqiya, to the south of the northern West Bank city of Nablus. A number of Palestinian farmers reported that Israeli settlers from the nearby settlement of Eli had stolen the harvest of about 900 of their olive trees. (Wafa 5 November 2019)

Home Demolition & Demolition threats

- In the East Jerusalem town of Silwan, Israeli troops demolished a Palestinian home on the pretext of it having been ‘built without a permit’. Israeli authorities have not granted building permits to Palestinian homeowners since they began occupying the city in 1967. In addition to destroying one family home, Israeli authorities also posted demolition orders on a number of other homes in the al-Issawiya neighborhood – which has been targeted, along with Silwan, for Israeli colonization. The Israeli municipal officials, accompanied by Israeli police and special forces, invaded the neighborhood of Abu Tayeh, in Silwan, and demolished the two-story family home of Mu’tasim al-Abbasi. Israeli officials posted notices on at least 10 Palestinian homes in al-Issawiya. The notices demanded that the homeowners come to the Israeli municipal building office to be given demolition orders for their homes which were “constructed without licenses” – despite the fact that Palestinians have not been issued any licenses to build on their own property for more than fifty years. During their invasion, Israeli forces detained a young boy under the pretext of throwing stones. (MEMC 5 November 2019)

- The Israeli occupation Army (IOA) notified Palestinian owners of six homes in Masafer Yatta area, south of Hebron, of their intent to remove the structures. The IOA stormed the hamlets of Maghayir al-Abeed and Khamet ed-Dabaa, handing out written demolition orders against six homes made of bricks and insulated panels. These homes, which were constructed by international organizations, belonged to local residents from the families of Makhamera and Dababesa. (MEMC 5 November 2019)
- Israeli authorities notified to stop the construction work on a Palestinian-owned house in Khirbet Masud, a locale to the west of Yabad in Jenin Governorate, the northern occupied West Bank. The Israeli army stormed Khirbet Masud area and handed local resident Mohammed 'Amarna a notice ordering him to stop the construction work on his house, citing unpermitted construction as a pretext. (Wafa 5 November 2019)

Israeli Military Orders

- Israeli authorities notified anew the Palestinian local authorities in Anata town, east of Jerusalem, of its intent to appropriate about 190 dunams of land, for military purposes. The land belongs to Palestinian citizens from the towns of Anata, Hizma and al-Eesawiyya. (MEMC 5 November 2019)
