Brutality of the Israeli Occupation Army

- Two Israeli occupation Army (IOA) shoved and cocked a gun in the face of a Palestinian father, in the presence of his young son. The scuffle — which took place in the southern West Bank city of Hebron — starts with an IOA shouting at the man, saying that the child has been throwing rocks at the IOA. “Throwing rocks?! He’s five years old,” exclaimed the father. “Yes, throwing rocks. All your friends are throwing rocks. I don’t care [how old he is],” the IOA replied. Another IOA then joined in and both started shoving the Palestinian man. The man responded by saying “don’t raise your hands on me.” One of the IOA cocked and aimed his gun at the father’s face as he tried to move on with his child. (IMEMC 9 November 2019)
- The Israeli occupation Army (IOA) invaded the southern West Bank city of Hebron, before storming and ransacking many homes. The IOA violently searched the homes and interrogated many Palestinians while inspecting their ID cards. Owners of some of the invaded homes have been identified as Abdul-Hakim Abu Sneina, Shokri Mojahed Tamimi and Husam Abu Hussein. The IOA also installed many roadblocks on roads, north of Hebron city, in addition to the junctions of Sa’ir and Halhoul towns, before stopping and searching dozens of cars, and interrogated many Palestinians while inspecting their ID cards. (IMEMC 9 November 2019)
- 104 Palestinian civilians, including 43 children, a woman and a paramedic, were shot and injured by Israeli occupation Army (IOA) fire against peaceful protestors at the 82nd Great March of Return (GMR), 08 November 2019. The IOA continued the use of excessive force against peaceful protestors, as 41 civilians sustained live-bullet-injuries — including 2 children in critical condition- in addition to other injuries by rubber bullets and tear gas canisters mainly in protestors’ upper bodies. Large crowds participated in the protest, as thousands of civilians joined across the 5 GMR encampments. The protest titled: “We Shall Carry On” and lasted from 14:00 to 17:30. Since the outbreak of GMR on 30 March 2018, 214 civilian killings by IOA, including 46 children, 2 women, 9 persons with disabilities, 4 paramedics and 2 journalists. Additionally, IOA shot and injured 14,706 civilians, including 3,691 children, 387 women, 253 paramedics and 218 journalists, noting that many sustained multiple injuries on separate occasions. (PCHR, IMEMC 9 November 2019)

- The Israeli occupation Army (IOA) opened fire at a sewage truck in a border area in the east of Khan Younis, south of the Gaza Strip. A sewage truck came under fire during its presence in as-Sanati area in Abasan al-Kabira town and was forced to leave the area. Luckily, no one was hurt in the shooting attack. About a week ago, a driver of a similar truck was badly injured when the IOA showered his vehicle with bullet in the east of Khan Younis. (PALINFO 9 November 2019)

Israeli Arrests

- Three Palestinian administrative detainees in Israeli jails remain on hunger strike against their illegal incarceration without charge or trial, one of them for 109 days in a row. Ismail Ali, from the town of Abu Dis, east of Jerusalem, has been on hunger strike for 109 days today. His health has seriously deteriorated due to his long fast, including severe weight loss, reduction in vision and mobility. Another administrative detainee, Musab al-Hendi, on hunger strike for 47 days in protest against his administrative detention without charge or trial, was recently moved to hospital following a deterioration in her health. The third hunger striker, Ahmad Zahran, on hunger strike for 49 days, is also suffering a critical health condition as a result of the prolonged fast. Zahran had his administrative detention order extended by four months, two days before his current sentence was supposed to end. Administrative detention is the imprisonment of Palestinians, by the Israeli state, without charge or trial, on orders from a military commander, on the basis of secret evidence. (IMEMC 9 November 2019)
- The Israeli occupation Army (IOA) detained a Palestinian citizen on the eastern border of the Gaza Strip. The IOA claimed the detainee was arrested while attempting to infiltrate into the Palestinian territories occupied since 1948. The detainee was taken for interrogation without giving further details. ## Confiscation & Razing of lands

- The Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) invaded a Palestinian olive orchard near Huwwara military roadblock, south of the northern West Bank city of Nablus, and forced a farmer out of his land. The IOA invaded an olive orchard, before attacking the owner while he was picking his trees, and forced him out. The Palestinian has a permit from the military to enter his olive orchard, isolated by the illegal Annexation Wall and colonies, however, the IOA forced him out. (IMEMC 9 November 2019)
- The Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) forced a Palestinian farmer out of his own grove near the village of Burin, to the south of Nablus, in the occupied West Bank. The farmer, who is not yet identified, was picking olives in his own grove when Israeli Army, who were manning the nearby Huwwara checkpoint, broke into the grove and ordered him out. The IOA told him that the grove is located in a military zone and that entering it requires the prior permission of Israeli authorities. Israel has declared more than 3,500 dunams of Palestinian agricultural land, located in the Nablus district, off limits to their owners and farmers. The only way the farmers can reach their lands is by getting a special permit from the Israeli military. (IMEMC 9 November 2019)
