Violations of the Israeli occupation Army

- Two Palestinians, including a journalist, were shot by Israeli occupation Army (IOA), while 17 others suffocated, during the weekly protest, in the village of Kufur Qaddoum in the northern West Bank district of Qalqilia. The IOA fired rubber-coated rounds and teargas at the protesters. 2 people were shot with rubber-coated steel bullets, and 17 others suffered the toxic effects of tear-gas inhalation. Ja'far Shtayyeh, a journalist affiliated with the Agence France-Presse (AFP) was shot and injured by the IOA. (IMEMC 14 March 2020)

Israeli Settler Violence

- Israeli settlers attacked Palestinian herders while grazing livestock near the village of al-Mughayir, to the east of Ramallah in the occupied West Bank. Settlers attacked herders and chased them out of the pastures and attempted to steal some of the livestock. The Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) in the area did not intervene to stop the settlers; rather they provided them with cover and protection. (Wafa 14 March 2020)

Home Demolition & Demolition threats

- A Palestinian family from Shu'fat refugee camp in occupied Jerusalem began demolishing their own home. Tareq Mohammad Ali said his family and he were forced to demolish their own home at the order of the Israeli High Court, under the pretext it was built without an Israeli permit. The family, now homeless, was forced by the Israeli municipality of West Jerusalem to demolish its own home, in order to avoid paying excessive fines if the municipality carried out the demolition.
