Violations of the Israeli occupation Army

- One Palestinian fisherman was wounded by Israeli occupation Army (IOS) while fishing off the coast of the northern besieged Gaza Strip. The fisherman was in his boat fishing, when the IOA opened fire at him, wounding him with a rubber-coated metal round. The man was transferred to the Shifa' hospital where his condition was described as moderate. (IMEMC 29 March 2020)
- Israeli police forces invaded the occupied city of East Jerusalem, storming a number of Palestinian neighborhoods. Israeli police forces invaded throughout Saturday night and early on Sunday, al-'Isawiya village and stormed a number of neighborhoods. Upon their invasion, crowds of Palestinian residents took to the streets, in protest, as Israeli police fired tear-gas canisters and sound grenades, to disperse them. Police forces broke into several Palestinian homes in the village, which is located in northeastern Jerusalem, and detained one Palestinian, identified as Ayham Dary, 32. Along with the detention of Dary, the police stormed the homes of Palestinian youth, who have been ordered by the Israeli authorities to remain under house arrest. (IMEMC 29 March 2020)
- Israeli police detained four Palestinians for disinfecting public facilities near the Lions' Gate in the occupied city of Jerusalem. Palestinians have formed local emergency committees in villages and towns as part of precautionary measures to help detect suspected coronavirus cases at the entrances of the villages and towns and combat the spread of the virus. Such committees are chiefly concerned with examining Palestinian workers in Israel who return back to their homes to force them into 14-day mandatory home quarantine and enforce the lockdown on the Palestinian territories. The officials seized poles and sheeting designated to form eight tents, two for a field clinic, two for a mosque, and four for emergency housing for people evacuated from their homes. A power generator, as well as supplies of sand, cements and cinder blocks to be used for the floor of the tents was also confiscated. (PNN 29 March 2020)
