Violations of the Israeli occupation Army

- The Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) invaded the al-Fawwar refugee camp, southwest of the southern West Bank city of Hebron, killed a Palestinian child, identified as Zeid Fadel Qaisiyya, 15, and injured four young men. Dozens of IOA invaded the refugee camp, and attacked local youngsters, who protested the invasion into their alley and neighborhoods. The IOA fired many live rounds at the unarmed protesters, and at random, in addition to rubber-coated steel bullets and gas bombs. The child was identified as Zeid Fadel Qaisiyya, 15, after shooting him with a live round in the head. (IMEMC 13 May 2020)

Israeli Settler Violence

- A group of Israeli settlers invaded the town of Beitin, east of the central West Bank city of Ramallah, and write graffiti calling for “spilling blood.” The settlers infiltrated into the town, and wrote graffiti on many walls. Some graffiti said, “I will not leave until blood is spilled here,” and “the lives of our soldiers are more important than the lives of our enemies.” (IMEMC 13 May 2020)

Expansion of Israeli settlements

- The coordinator of the Israeli government activities in the West Bank has issued orders to seize Palestinian lands and real estate near the Ibrahimi Mosque in the Old City of al-Khalil to carry out a project for Jewish settlers. The project includes the construction of a special path with a parking lot, rest areas and lanes that leads to the Mosque and the installation of an elevator at the end of the path to carry Jewish settlers into the holy site. The step has been taken on the instructions of Israeli so-called defense minister Naftali Bennett, who gave early last month the final approval to a plan to seize Palestinian land and property in the Old City of al-Khalil to build a path and an elevator to facilitate the entry of Jewish settlers to the Ibrahimi Mosque. Israeli premier Benjamin Netanyahu and attorney general Avichai Mandelblit had already given their approval to the plan. The he Israeli occupation authority notified the Palestinian Authority and the competent authorities of its intents to carry out the project within 60 days. (PALINFO 13 May 2020)

Israeli Closures

- The Israeli occupation Army (IOA) has maintained a tight siege on Ya'bad town in southern Jenin, where fierce clashes took place and continued into the dawn hours of today between local youths and the IOA. Two young men were injured by gunfire and many others suffered from their exposure to tear gas fumes during the events. Following the IOF's withdrawal from the town, a large number of troops stormed it once again, spread through its streets and carried out new raids on homes and arrests. During its ongoing campaign, the IOA detained dozens of local residents, including families and 10 from one building. (PALINFO 13 May 2020)
