Violations of the Israeli occupation Army

- The Israeli Navy, forced Palestinian fishermen to flee the coast fearing for their lives, blocking their ability to provide for their families. Israeli Navy vessels intercepted fishermen sailing in the north of the Gaza strip, in the Al-Sudaniya area, by opening fire in the air, causing panic among the men. No casualties were reported. The navy ships forced the Palestinian fishermen to leave the shores immediately, noting that the fishermen are trying to earn a living within a strict limit, dictated by the Israeli occupation authorities. - Israeli occupation authorities (IOA) decided to extend the detention of a Palestinian father and his three sons who were kidnapped during an attack on their home last week in Jerusalem. The IOA broke into the home of Mansour Abu Gharbiya in al-Suwwana neighborhood, assaulted his wife, detained him and his three sons Rami, Ahmad and Mahmoud. Abu Gharbiya's son, Rami, was badly injured and suffered a nose fracture in the assault. The IOA decided to keep the four detainees in jail until Monday. No charges have been leveled against them yet. (PALINFO 20 June 2020)
- The Israeli occupation Army (IOA) detained a young man called Hussein ash-Shawahin from his home in Yatta city in the southern Hebron. (PALINFO 20 June 2020)
- The Israeli occupation Army (IOA) detained a young man identified as Ali Abu Salah, a resident of Arraba town in Jenin at the Za'atara military checkpoint in southern Nablus as he was on his way to Ramallah. (PALINFO 20 June 2020)
- In east Jerusalem, the Israeli occupation Army (IOA) stormed Al Issawiya town and detained a young man from his home in Al Aliyan neighborhood. (PALINFO 20 June 2020)

Israeli Settler Violence

- Several Israeli settlers prevented, a Palestinian family from reaching their own home in the center of Hebron city, in the southern part of the occupied West Bank. The family was trying to reach its home in Tal Romeida neighborhood, in the center of Hebron city. The settlers stopped members of Abu Aisha family from reaching their home, while Israeli occupation Army (IOA) stood and watched without even attempting to intervene, and instead started pushing the Palestinians away. (IMEMC 20 June 2020)
- A group of armed Israeli settlers, assaulted a child, near the West Bank city of Bethlehem, south of the occupied Palestinian capital, Jerusalem. The child, only fifteen years of age, was attacked by a group of colonists near the al-Khader Palestinian town, south of Bethlehem. Settlers first chased the child, identified as Wadea' Fadi Salah, and pushed him down a cliff near his house in Abu Sood neighborhood in al-Khader. The child suffered various serious cuts and bruises, and was rushed to a hospital in Bethlehem city. (IMEMC 20 June 2020)
