Violations of the Israeli occupation Army

- Dozens of Israeli police, assaulted a number of Palestinian Muslim worshipers performing Eid al-Fitr prayers at Bab al-Asbat or Lion's Gate, leading to the holy Al-Aqsa Mosque compound in occupied Jerusalem, southern West Bank. The Israeli police assaulted a number of unarmed Palestinian civilians, causing many bruises among the victims. One Israeli officer hit a Palestinian worshiper with his rifle. Another elderly Palestinian man was carried by 4 Israeli police, by his arms and legs, no serious injuries were reported. (IMEMC 24 May 2020)
- Israeli Prison Service (IPS) placed a Palestinian man from the northern West Bank city of Jenin, under administrative detention, with no charges, for a period of six months. Family members of Mahmoud Said Alsa'dy, 40, stated that Israeli prison authority of Ofer prison, placed their son, Mahmoud Alsa'dy, under administrative detention and that the circumstances of his imprisonment remain top secret. The family said that Alsa'dy was detained a few days ago, at an Israeli army roadblock in the Arraba village, south of Jenin. Israeli soldiers reportedly seized his vehicle. Important to note, Alsa'dy has spent several years in Israeli prison and been released, Israeli authorities only recently detained him again. (IMEMC 24 May 2020)

Israeli Settler Violence

- A number of Israeli settlers opened fire towards a local park in the town Huwara town, south of Nablus and attempted to ravage it. The settlers came from Yitzhar settlement inhabited by hardcore fanatic Jews. (WAFA 24 May 2020)
