Violations of the Israeli occupation Army

- Israeli troops in the city of Hebron, south of the West Bank, cracked down, on a peaceful Palestinian protest, by firing dozens of tear-gas canisters and rubber-coated steel bullets. Dozens of peaceful demonstrators, including youths, took to the streets of the Alzawya neighborhood, central Hebron, to express their rejection of the planned Israeli annexation of 30 percent of the West Bank, as well as increased Israeli colonist settlers' attacks on Palestinians living in Hebron. Israeli troops, positioned in the neighborhood and other parts of Hebron city, responded to the local protest by firing dozens of tear-gas canisters and rubber-coated steel bullets, causing many protesters to suffocate. No other injuries by rubber-coated steel bullets were reported. (IMEMC 2 July 2020)
- In Jenin, in northern West Bank, the Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) stormed and ransacked homes in the al-Marah neighborhood, and detained a young man, identified as Mohammad Omar al-Jamal, in addition to assaulting his brother. The IOA also invaded and violently searched many homes in the neighborhood, and interrogated many Palestinians.
- The Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) detained a former political prisoner, Nasser Zeidan al-Jada', from his home in Kharrouba neighborhood in Jenin city. The Palestinian is originally from nearby Burqin town. In Taybeh village, northwest of Jenin, the soldiers abducted Aws Ibrahim Jabarin, after storming his home and ransacking it. In Tulkarem, in northern West Bank, the soldiers abducted Mahmoud Abdul-Rahman Khalaf, 26, from the southern Neighborhood, and Khaled Adnan Salman, 24, from Ramin town, east of Tulkarem city. The soldiers also invaded homes in Hebron city, before abducting Mohannad Hussein Natsha, 18, and Ala' Mohammad at-Teety, 17, from his home in the al-Fawwar refugee camp, southwest of Hebron. In Bethlehem, south of the occupied Palestinian capital Jerusalem, the soldiers invaded the Saff Street, in the center of the city, and summoned a young man, identified as Ramadan Janazra, for interrogation in Gush Etzion military base and security center.

- The Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) detained a Palestinian lawyer with French citizenship, from occupied Jerusalem, a former political prisoner who was previously imprisoned for more than nine years, and moved him to the al-Maskobiyya interrogation facility. The IOA detained Salah Hammouri while receiving treatment at a medical center in occupied Jerusalem, and was ordered under interrogation for one week. Salah was frequently detained by the army, was subject to various forms of torture, and spent more than nine years in Israeli prisons, detention, and interrogation centers. (IMEMC 2 July 2020)
- Undercover Israeli occupation Army (IOA) detained a Palestinian man after sneaking into Dehesheh refugee camp, near Bethlehem city in the occupied West Bank. The undercover forces sneaked into the camp in the afternoon hours before abducting Nidal Naeem Abu Akr, 52 years old. The man was taken to an unknown destination. (WAFSA 2 July 2020)
- The Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) rounded up three Palestinians from the northern West Bank of Jenin. One of the three detainees was identified as a resident of the Jenin city neighborhood of Marah, another as a resident of Burqin town and the third as a former prisoner who went on a hunger strike for 43 days against his administrative detention. During the raid into Marah neighborhood, the IOA severely assaulted a young man, ransacked several houses and interrogated their occupants. (WAFSA 2 July 2020)
- In Tulkarem Governorate, Israeli military vehicles stormed Tulkarem city, where the Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) rounded up a Palestinian. The IOA conducted a similar raid in Ramin village, east of Tulkarem, resulting in the detention of another.
- Two Palestinian teens were rounded up from the southern West Bank Governorate of Tulkarem. One of the two detainees was identified as a resident of al-Fawwar refugee camp and another of Hebron city. (WAFSA 2 July 2020)

Israeli Settler Violence

- Israeli settlers accompanied by a bulldozer, proceeded to level a tract of land, owned by Palestinian villagers from Einabus, south of Nablus. The settlers were said to have come from the illegal Yitzhar settlements, located south of Nablus. (IMEMC 2 July 2020)

- Israeli settlers from the settlement of Yitzhar, pumped all the water out of a well belonging to Palestinians in Madama village, south of Nablus, leaving no water for the residents of Madama. (IMEMC 2 July 2020)

Home Demolition & Demolition threats

- The Israeli military, distributed confiscation notices to Palestinian owners of hundreds of dunams of agricultural lands in Jab'a village, in the southern occupied West Bank city of Bethlehem. The lands to be confiscated are owned by the Masha'leh and Tous families. (IMEMC 2 July 2020)
- The Israeli occupation Army (IOA) delivered stop construction orders, to several Palestinian-owned structures in Tuwani village and al-Mafqara village, in Masafer Yatta, southern occupied West Bank. The IOA invaded the village of Tuwani and handed several residents orders to halt construction of a house, a residential tent, a tin-sheet residential structure, a shack, and water well. The army also ordered the removal of two residential tents, belonging to two brothers in Tuwani. In the village of al-Mafqara, The IOA issued a notice to halt the construction of a tin-sheet residential structure. (IMEMC 2 July 2020)

Israeli Military Orders

- Israeli occupation authorities delivered a confiscation warrant to a Palestinian family in the Wadi Al-Hilweh neighborhood of Silwan town, in occupied East Jerusalem. The warrant is pertaining to an Israeli authorities' plan to confiscate the home of Palestinian Samareen family, who have lived in their own home for many decades. The center noted that the warrant is based on a verdict issued by the Israeli central court, demanding the Samareen family to evacuate its home, before the court delivers the home to the so-called Israeli Hemonta company, which is said to be an organ of the Jewish National Fund. Israeli authorities claim that they had informed the Samareen family long ago that the home, consisting of four apartments with 18 family members living in it, was subject to the so-called Absentee's Property Law. (IMEMC 2 July 2020)
