Violations of the Israeli occupation Army

- A large Israeli army raided early in the morning several neighborhoods in the city of Ramallah. The army was seen in several neighborhoods of the city in the pre-dawn hours as well as in the attached town of Beitunia where the army detained Ruba Assi, a student at Birzeit University, after raiding her home in Beitunia, and Majed Neirat, from the same town. The army also detained Hussein Abu Kweik and Jamal Tawil, two local leaders, after raiding their homes in al-Bireh, Ramallah's twin city. Residents clashed with the Israeli army during the raids. The army fired rubber-coated metal bullets and teargas canisters at the stone-throwing youths. There were no immediate reports of injuries. (Wafa 9 July 2020)
- Israeli settlers sneaked during the night into a Palestinian village in the north of the West Bank and vandalized several Palestinian-owned vehicles. The settlers sneaked into al-Lubban al-Sharqiya village, south of the city of Nablus, and slashed tires of 12 vehicles parked in the village and wrote hate and racist graffiti on walls of homes.
