Violations of the Israeli occupation Army

- Several Palestinian citizens suffered from their exposure to tear gas during clashes between local youths and the Israeli occupation Army (IOA) in the village of Deir Abu Misha'al. The IOA stormed the village, and fired rubber-coated metal bullets, teargas and stun grenades towards the citizens and homes. A number of citizens suffered teargas suffocation. (PALINFO 4 September 2020)
- Dozens of civilians suffered from inhaling tear gas during violent confrontations with Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) in Issawiya town in occupied Jerusalem. The IOA raided martyr Muhammad Obeid neighborhood in the town and fired tear gas canisters indiscriminately towards the citizens' homes who were forced to close them despite the hot weather and dozens of them suffered teargas suffocation. (PALINFO 4 September 2020)
- Four Palestinian citizens were injured in Jewish settlers' attack, one seriously, in a village to the north east of Ramallah. The four citizens, from Kufr Malik village in eastern Ramallah, were riding a car near Turmasa'iya village in northeastern Ramallah when Jewish settlers threw rocks on their vehicle. Four citizens, one of them, a pregnant woman in her last month of pregnancy, in serious condition. (PALINFO 4 September 2020)
- Three Palestinian workers were shot and injured by Israeli occupation Army (IOA) near the town of Habla, to the south of Qalqilia city in the occupied West Bank. The three workers were on their way back home from their workplace when the IOA opened gunfire at them, injuring two of them in the foot and the third in his mouth. (WAFSA 4 September 2020)
