Violations of the Israeli occupation Army

- Five activists from the Combatants for Peace Movement and a journalist were injured and more than seven other activists were detained when Israeli occupation Army (IOA) attacked a convoy delivering water to a Palestinian family from Al-Tiwani village in Masafer Yatta, south of Hebron, on Friday 17.09.2021. Two were moderately injured and were moved to a local hospital in Hebron, and three others suffered tear gas inhalation. Adam Rabie was among those injured who sustained injuries in his stomach when the IOA fired a tear gas canister directly at him. The convoy of activists set out from the village of at-Tiwani towards the family home of a local farmer, Abu Hani, to deliver water to the property because the family has no running water due to Israeli violations and restrictions. The IOA then stopped the convoy, assaulted the activists, and detained seven of them. The IOA also fired a barrage of stun grenades and tear gas and forced the participants to return, without allowing the water to reach the Palestinian family. (IMEMC 17 September 2021)
- The Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) injured several nonviolent protesters and detained others, in a procession in the al-Mafqara village, east of Yatta town, south of the southern West Bank city of Hebron. The IOA assaulted the nonviolent protesters with gas bombs, concussion grenades, and rubber-coated steel bullets. One woman, identified as Kholoud Abu Ra'eyya, was shot with a gas bomb in her back, and a man was shot with a gas bomb in the abdomen. Several protesters suffered the effects of tear gas inhalation, in addition to cuts and bruises. The IOA also detained several nonviolent activists and fired gas bombs and concussion grenades at journalists reporting on the procession. (IMEMC 17 September 2021)
