- The Israeli Interior Minister Ayelet Shaked officially notified 36-year-old Palestinian-French human rights defender Salah Hammouri of the revocation of his permanent residency status in Jerusalem based on a "breach of allegiance to the State of Israel." This decision comes after being approved by the Israeli Attorney General Avichai Mendelblit and Minister of Justice Gideon Sa'ar. The initiation of his residency revocation and forced deportation, pursuant to Amendment No. 30 to the Entry into Israel Law of 1952, comes on the heels of the Israeli apartheid regime's targeted harassment campaign against Salah Hammouri, a vocal Palestinian human rights advocate, long-time employee at Addameer Prisoner Support and Human Rights Association, and the former prisoner. (IMEMC 19 October 2021)
- Israeli soldiers injured, many Palestinians at the Arraba town junction, south of the northern West Bank city of Jenin. Dozens of Palestinians gathered at the junction, protesting the escalating Israeli violations, before the soldiers invaded the area, and started firing live rounds, gas bombs, and concussion grenades at them. Many Palestinians suffered the effects of tear gas inhalation, in addition to cuts and bruises; the army also chased many residents while trying to abduct them. Furthermore, the soldiers invaded various areas near Ya'bad town, southwest of Jenin, and forced the Palestinians away. (IMEMC 19 October 2021)
- A number of Palestinian young men suffered from their exposure to tear gas during clashes with the Israeli occupation forces (IOF) in southern Jenin. Clashes started after the IOF set up a checkpoint at the junction of

Arraba town. The IOF fired rubber bullets at the young men and showered them with tear gas and stun grenades during the events. Meanwhile, the IOF intensified its presence on the outskirts of Ya'bad town in the southwest of Jenin. (PALINFO 19 October 2021)

Palestinian farmers from the villages of Deir Sharaf, Sebastia and An-Naqura found that dozens of their olive trees had been destroyed. Home Demolition & Demolition threats

- Israeli soldiers invaded, the village of Ghazara, east of the West Bank city of Bethlehem, and posted a demolition order of an under-construction home. The targeted property is a one-story under-construction home owned by Ahmad Mousa Thweib, who is constructing his property on his land. Several army jeeps, accompanied by bulldozers, invaded the Farsh al-Hawa area, west of Hebron city, and demolished the recently constructed home, its surrounding walls, and a well, owned by a lawyer, identified as Eyad Amro. The Israeli army claimed the two-story home, its surrounding walls, and the well were all built without a permit from the “Civil Administration Office,” of the Israeli military occupation. Israeli Military Orders

- The Israeli occupation forces (IOF) destroyed a paved road in the east of Tubas and delivered stop-work orders against agricultural structures in southern Bethlehem. The IOF bulldozed parts of a paved road in the northeast of Tayasir village, east of Tubas, as part of its efforts to disconnect Palestinian communities and hamlets in the region from each other. Meanwhile, the IOF handed Palestinian citizens stop-work orders against four unfinished structures to be used for agricultural purposes in

Artas village, south of Bethlehem, claiming they were built with no permits. Palestinians in their occupied territories are forced to build without permits due to the Israeli refusal to grant them building permits or approve zoning plans for their areas. (PALINFO 19 October 2021)
