Violations of the Israeli occupation Army

- Israeli soldiers abducted, two young Palestinian men on lands near the fence in the eastern part of southern Gaza Strip, in addition to firing live rounds at farmers in the central part of the coastal region. Media sources said the soldiers, stationed behind the perimeter fence, east of Khan Younis in the southern part of the Gaza Strip, abducted two young men while working on Palestinian lands near the perimeter fence. The soldiers cuffed and blindfolded the two young men, for approaching the fence, and took them to an unknown destination. In addition, the soldiers, stationed on military towers across the fence east of the al-Maghazi and the al-Boreij refugee camps, in the central Gaza Strip, fired many live rounds at Palestinian farmers who were trying to work on their farmlands. The attack did not lead to casualties, but forced the farmers to leave, in fear of further escalation. (IMEMC 9 December 2021)

Israeli Settler Violence

- Several Palestinians were injured in an attack by Israeli police forces and Jewish settlers on Sheikh Jarrah neighborhood in Occupied Jerusalem. The four pepper spray injuries among local residents who were trying to prevent the settlers' break-ins into their homes. This came after Israeli settlers stormed the neighborhood and assaulted its residents amid an IOF-imposed lockdown, preventing peace activists' entry to support local residents. The settlers attacked a number of homes, threatened with eviction, chanted anti-Arab slogans, and raised the Israeli flag. (PALINFO 9 December 2021)
- Dozens of Jewish settlers broke into and defiled the Aqsa Mosque in Occupied Jerusalem. The settlers broke into the holy Islamic site under heavy Israeli police protection through the Maghareba Gate and embarked on provocative tours in the Aqsa Compound and performed Talmudic rituals in the eastern area of the holy Islamic site.
