Violations of the Israeli Occupation Army

- A Palestine TV crew was attacked by Israeli settlers who blocked West Bank roads east of Ramallah. The crew composed of three people was returning from a filming assignment in the Jordan Valley when their vehicle was stopped and attacked by settlers near the village of Beitin, east of Ramallah in the central West Bank. The Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) who were in the area but did nothing to stop the settlers or reopen the roads. None of the settlers has been arrested. (IMEMC 13 January 2022)
- Omar Abdel Majid As'ad, 80, a US citizen residing in the village of Jiljilya, north of the occupied West Bank city of Ramallah, died of a heart attack after the Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) held him for several hours, blindfolded and handcuffed, and also beat him after pulling him out of his car when he was returning home after midnight, then left him in an abandoned under construction building on a very cold night where he was found dead in the morning when his village residents went to look for him at dawn after the IOA left the area. (IMEMC 13 January 2022)
- The Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) invaded Tubas city in the northeastern West Bank, leading to protests, before shooting a young man with a live round. Several army jeeps invaded the city before the IOA shot the young man with a live round in the arm during protests that erupted after the soldiers stormed and searched homes. The IOA invaded and ransacked the homes of two siblings, identified as Hatem and Samer Abu Khader, in addition to Sameh Samer Abu Khader. (IMEMC 13 January 2022)
- The Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) invaded the Jabal al-Mawaleh area, in the center of Bethlehem city, south of occupied Jerusalem in the West Bank, before storming and ransacking the home of a political prisoner, identified as Jawad Jawareesh, and his brother Mahmoud, in addition to Moayyad Rezeq. (IMEMC 13 January 2022)

- The Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) invaded 'Aida refugee camp, Hindaza mountain area in addition to Rafida and Rakhma, in Bethlehem governorate. (IMEMC 13 January 2022)
- Israeli navy ships attacked a Palestinian fishing boat offshore the city of Gaza, in the besieged coastal region. The boat was within Palestinian water, less than six nautical miles from the shore, when a navy ship started firing live rounds at it, in addition to using water cannons. The attack caused damage, but did not lead to casualties or abductions, and forced the fishermen back to the shore to avoid further escalation. (IMEMC 13 January 2022)

Israeli Settler Violence

- Israeli settlers attacked a surveyor while he was working in the town of Kafr Qallil to the south of Nablus. Settlers physically attacked a 28-year-old surveying engineer, from the Salfit governorate, while he was working in the town of Kafr Qallil, causing him injuries to the head. (IMEMC 13 January 2022)
- Groups of Jewish settlers stormed al-Aqsa Mosque in Occupied Jerusalem under heavy police protection. During their tours at the Islamic holy site, the settlers provocatively performed Talmudic prayers. (PALINFO 13 January 2022)

Home Demolition & Demolition threats

- The Israeli Occupation Army (IOA) demolished a Palestinian house, two sheds, and two wells near Yatta own, south of Hebron, in the southern part of the occupied West Bank. The IOA invaded the al-Fakheet village, in the Masafer Yatta area, after surrounding and isolating it. The IOA then demolished a Palestinian house, approximately 100 square meters, two sheds used as barns for two local Palestinians, and two water wells. The Israeli army claims the structures did not receive permits from the "Civil Administration Office," the administrative branch of Israel's illegal occupation in the West Bank. (IMEMC 13 January 2022)

- The Israeli municipal authorities forced a Palestinian resident to self-demolish his commercial facility in Occupied Jerusalem. The Palestinian resident, Jamal Muhammad Ali, was forced to demolish his own 150 m2 store in the Shuafat refugee camp. (WAFSA 13 January 2022)
- The Israeli occupation Army (IOA) demolished 11 Palestinian-owned facilities, including residential buildings in Hebron. The IOA violently stormed Al-Fakhit community, east of Yatta town, south of al-Khalil, and carried out a large-scale demolition campaign. Five houses, five agricultural facilities, and a water well were demolished during the campaign. As a result, 18 people including children were left homeless. (PALINFO 13 January 2022)
