Violations of the Israeli occupation Army

- On Saturday night, Israeli soldiers injured several Palestinians, including one who was shot in the neck in Hares village, west of Salfit, in the central West Bank, after illegal Israeli colonizers invaded it. Several army jeeps invaded the village, leading to protests before the soldiers fired many live rounds, rubber-coated steel bullets, and gas bombs. Medical sources said the soldiers shot one Palestinian, Daoud Daoud, with a live round in the neck, causing a severe injury. They added that the soldiers also shot three with rubber-coated steel bullets and caused many others to suffer the effects of tear gas inhalation. The head of Hares Village Council, Omar Samara, said the residents intercepted an invasion by illegal Israeli colonizers into the western entrance of their village before the soldiers invaded it and opened fire at the Palestinians. It is worth mentioning that the colonizers also cut and uprooted at least thirty olive trees in Qisarya and Arara, north of Kafr ed-Deek, west of Salfit. The trees are owned by Emad Ismael Ahmad, Nasser Mohammad Othman, Ali Ahmad, and Aziz Yousef Qassoul. The colonizers came from the illegal Bruchin colony, built on stolen Palestinian lands owned by residents from Kafr ed-Deek and Bruqin towns west of Salfit. (IMEMC 8 May 2022)
- On Saturday, Israeli soldiers shot two Palestinians with rubber-coated steel bullets and caused many to suffer the effects of tear gas inhalation in Beit Ummar town, north of Hebron, in the southern part of the occupied West Bank. Local sources said several army jeeps invaded the town, leading to protests before the soldiers fired rubber-coated steel bullets, gas bombs, and concussion grenades. They added that the soldiers shot two young men with rubber-coated steel bullets and caused many to suffer the effects of tear gas inhalation. The attacks occurred after the Palestinians protested an invasion by colonizers and soldiers into the Safa area in Beit Ummar, especially after the colonizers attacked a few homes. Also, Israeli colonizers attacked many cars driving on a bypass road in the al-Jalajel and Beit Einoun areas, east of Hebron, in the southern part of the occupied West Bank. In related news, several army jeeps invaded the Shu'fat refugee camp northeast of occupied Jerusalem, leading to protests. (IMEMC 8 May 2022)

- Israeli occupation forces tonight shot and wounded a young Palestinian man in the occupied city of Jerusalem. Wafa correspondent reported that the occupation forces shot a young man in the Bab al-Amoud area, before detaining him. His identity and health condition remain unknown until the moment. Forces reportedly attacked all those present in the vicinity of Bab al-Amoud in occupied Jerusalem and closed all entrances to the Old City and the blessed al-Aqsa Mosque. (Wafa 8 May 2022)
- A Palestinian youth was fatally shot today evening by Israeli forces' fire near a military checkpoint to the south of Tulkarem, in the northern occupied West Bank, according to the ministry of health. The ministry of health said a youth was killed after being shot by Israeli forces near the Jabara military checkpoint, near Tulkarem. The youth was identified as Mahmoud Sami Khalil, from Khan Yunis city, in the southern Gaza Strip. Israeli soldiers stationed at the military checkpoint heavily fired at the youth after he crossed through one of the breaches in the separation barrier, injuring him seriously. He was taken to a hospital in Israel, where he was pronounced dead. (Wafa 8 May 2022)
- A number of Palestinians suffocated today by tear gas fired by Israeli forces during clashes that broke out in the village of Rummanah to the west of Jenin, in the northern occupied West Bank, according to local sources. Sources told Wafa that at least 50 military vehicles stormed the village, raided several homes, and turned their rooftops into military outposts, spurring clashes with residents. Forces fired rubber-coated steel bullets, tear gas canisters, and stun grenades at residents and their homes, causing many to suffocate due to tear gas inhalation. A Palestinian youth was also struck with a stun grenade in the leg during the clashes. Forces also raided the home of local resident Reyad Bishnaq and took over the rooftop of his home after physically attacking him and holding the family members in one room after confiscating their cell phones. Forces reportedly prevented Palestinian ambulances from entering the area to transfer the injured. (Wafa 8 May 2022)

Israeli Settler Violence

- On Saturday, illegal Israeli colonizers attacked a Palestinian man near Nablus in the northern part of the occupied West Bank, causing many injuries. Ghassan Daghlas, a Palestinian official who monitors Israel's illegal colonialist activities in the northern West Bank, said the colonizers assaulted Jamal Barham Hamayel in Ein Um al-Jarb, northeast of Beita town, south of Nablus. Daghlas said the colonizers repeatedly struck and beat the Palestinian man before fleeing. Palestinian medics were called to the scene and rushed him to a hospital in Nablus. The colonizers also attacked several Palestinian homes in Burin town, south of Nablus, before the locals managed to force them out of their community. In related news, Israeli soldiers abducted a young man, Wisam Lauth Abdul-Hamid, from Einabus village while crossing the Huwwara military roadblock south of Nablus. (IMEMC 8 May 2022)

- Hardline Israeli settlers today uprooted and chopped off about 20 olive trees for Palestinian farmers in the village of Al-Tuwani, south of the occupied West Bank province of Hebron, according to local sources. Rateb Jabour, a local Palestinian activist, told Wafa that a group of Israeli settlers from the illegal settlement of Maon uprooted and chopped off nearly 20 olive trees belonging to local Palestinian citizens. (Wafa 8 May 2022)
- Scores of Israeli settlers escorted by Israeli police broke into the Al-Aqsa Mosque compound in occupied Jerusalem earlier this morning and performed rituals across its courtyards, according to witnesses. Wafa correspondent said scores of Israeli settlers entered the holy site in groups and performed rituals and Talmudic prayers there under the protection of Israeli police officers. Palestinians and Muslim worshipers were denied access into the holy site by Israeli police during the presence of the Israeli settlers, she added. The latest development comes after nearly month-long tensions fueled by increased presence by hardcore Israeli settlers inside the holy site during the past Muslim holy month of Ramadan. (Wafa 8 May 2022)
- Scores of Israeli settlers last night attacked Palestinian vehicles and terrorized civilians at roads and junctions east of the city of Hebron, in the south of the occupied West Bank, according to witnesses and local sources. Wafa correspondent said groups of Israeli settler extremists from the settlements of Kiryat Arba, Harsina and Havat Gal attacked many vehicles and pelted stones at some of them in the presence of Israeli soldiers, causing damage to many of them. No injuries were reported. Meantime in the north of the West Bank, confrontations broke out between Israeli army and local Palestinian residents who foiled an attack on the village of Hares, in the Salfit province, during which four local

Palestinians were injured by rubber-coated rounds fired at them by the soldiers. (Wafa 8 May 2022)

House Demolition and Demolition Threats

- Israeli occupation forces delivered today notices for the demolition of four houses belonging to Palestinians in the Masafer Yatta area to the south of Hebron, according to a local activist. Coordinator for the Anti-Wall and Settlement Committee Rateb al-Jabour said the Israeli forces handed residents in the Masafer Yatta area notices for the demolition of their four homes. The notices gave the owners four days to appeal the demolition decision. The Israeli forces have recently escalated their attacks against Palestinians and their properties in the Masafer Yatta area with the aim to take over the land for the benefit of settlement expansion. In the meantime, a Palestinian sustained tonight sustained cuts and bruises throughout his body after being physically attacked by Israeli forces for attempting to prevent them from demolishing his home in the village of Tiwani in Masafer Yatta. (Wafa 8 May 2022)
- The Israeli municipality of West Jerusalem today notified of the demolition of an apartment building belonging to a Palestinian family in the East Jerusalem town of Silwan, citing unpermitted construction as a pretext. Wafa correspondent in Jerusalem said the Rajabi family was handed a demolition notice, ordering the demolition of the two-storey building within days. The building consists of five apartments and is located in Ein al-Lawzeh neighborhood in Silwan. One of the family members, Faris al-Rajbi said they were notified today about the demolition of their apartment building which is home to at least 30 people, including children and women, stressing that they have nowhere else to go. He said the Israeli municipality cited unpermitted construction as a pretext for the demolition, but in actual fact, the Israeli authorities refuse to grant Palestinians any building permits in Jerusalem. Faris' brother, who also lives in the building with his family, said he received a phone call during the first day of Eid al-Fitr, informing him of the demolition order, which they said would be implemented immediately after the Eid. The municipality reportedly gave the family a choice between self-demolishing the building, which the family refused, or having the municipality bulldozers demolish it. Six neighborhoods in

Silwan are threatened with complete demolition for the benefit of settler organizations. (Wafa 8 May 2022)
