Israeli Violations' Activities in the occupied State of Palestine

12 June 2022

The daily report highlights the violations behind Israeli home demolitions and demolition threats in the occupied Palestinian territory, the confiscation and razing of lands, the uprooting and destruction of fruit trees, the expansion of settlements and erection of outposts, the brutality of the Israeli Occupation Army, the Israeli settlers violence against Palestinian civilians and properties, the erection of checkpoints, the construction of the Israeli segregation wall and the issuance of military orders for the various Israeli purposes.

The Violations are based on reports provided by field workers and/or news sources.

The text is not quoted directly from the sources but is edited for clarity.

The daily report does not necessarily reflect ARIJ's opinion.

This DAILY REPORT is prepared as part of the project entitled ASSESSING THE IMPEDIMENTS BEFORE THE TWO-STATE SOLUTION, which is financially supported by the EU. However, the content of this presentation is the sole responsibility of ARIJ & LRC and does not necessarily reflect those of the donors.

Violations of the Israeli Occupation Army

- Israeli soldiers uprooted 95 Palestinian olive trees in the Al-Khader town, south of Bethlehem, in the occupied West Bank. The Israeli army invaded the Baten al-Ma'si area in the southern part of the city and uprooted ninety-five olive trees in four Dunams of Palestinian olive orchards. The trees are in an orchard privately owned by two local farmers, Issa Ahmad Salah and Daoud Salah. (IMEMC 12 June 2022)
- Israeli soldiers injured a Palestinian after ramming him with their jeeps after the army invaded Husan town, west of Bethlehem in the occupied West Bank, and caused many to suffer the effects of tear gas inhalation. Protests took place after several army jeeps invaded the eastern area of the town before the soldiers attacked the protesters with rubber-coated steel bullets and gas bombs. The soldiers rammed a Palestinian, fifty years of age. Dozens of Palestinians suffered the effects of tear gas inhalation during the Israeli military invasion of the town. (IMEMC 12 June 2022)
- A Palestinian, who was seriously injured after Israeli soldiers attacked him in Tarqoumia town, northwest of the southern West Bank city of Hebron, remains in a critical condition. Husam Fatafta suffered fractures to the skull and a Hemorrhage in the brain after Israeli soldiers truck him with their rifles on the head. Husam was assaulted and seriously injured when the army attacked dozens of nonviolent protesters during a procession against the Israeli order illegally annexing 600 Dunams of Palestinian lands in Tarqoumia. The soldiers also shot Husam's brother and a journalist with rubber-coated steel bullets and caused many to suffer the effects of tear gas inhalation. (IMEMC 12 June 2022)
- Israeli navy ships attacked Palestinian fishing boats in the southern part of the Gaza Strip. The navy chased and attacked several fishing boats near the Rafah shore and fired many live rounds at them. The navy chased the boats to the shore while firing live rounds and water cannons, causing damage. (IMEMC 12 June 2022)
- Israeli soldiers shot two Palestinians, including a journalist, abducted three others, and caused dozens to suffer the effects of tear gas inhalation in

Tarqoumia town, northwest of Hebron in the southern part of the occupied West Bank. Dozens of Palestinians gathered in the at-Taybeh area, also known as al-Harsh, protesting the ongoing Israeli attempts to annex their lands illegally. The soldiers attacked the nonviolent protesters with live fire, gas bombs, and concussion grenades, shooting a young man with live fire and a photojournalist, Abdul-Hafith Hashlamoun, with a concussion grenade in the head, and causing dozens to suffer the effects of tear gas inhalation. The soldiers also abducted three young men and took them to an unknown destination before declaring the entire area a closed military zone. The Palestinians marched to their land, threatened with illegal annexation, and were rehabilitating and tending them, building retaining walls, and removing weeds when the soldiers attacked them, leading to a scuffle. Israeli Settler Violence

- Groups of Jewish settlers escorted by police forces desecrated the Aqsa Mosque in Occupied Jerusalem in the morning and later in the afternoon. Dozens of settlers entered the Mosque in groups through its Maghariba Gate and toured its courtyards under police guard. During their tours at the Islamic holy site, the settlers received lectures from rabbis about the alleged temple mount and a number of them provocatively performed Talmudic prayers. Meanwhile, the Israeli occupation police imposed movement restrictions on Muslim worshipers at the Aqsa Mosque's entrances and gates. (PALINFO 12 June 2022)

Home Demolition & Demolition threats

- Israeli soldiers demolished agricultural structures in the Khilal al-Adra area east of Yatta town, south of Hebron, in the southern part of the occupied West Bank. The soldiers demolished an agricultural room and four tents owned by the Shawahin family. The rooms are on privately-owned Palestinian lands, near the lands that were lately illegally annexed by the settlers in the Ein al-Baida area. (IMEMC 12 June 2022)
