Violations of the Israeli Occupation Army

- Israeli soldiers invaded the Al-Khader town, south of the West Bank city of Bethlehem, and injured many Palestinians during a procession against the Israeli offensive on Gaza. The Palestinians marched in the at-Tal area in the Old City of Al-Khader while chanting against the Israeli offensive on Gaza and the ongoing Israeli occupation of Palestine. The soldiers fired many live rounds, gas bombs, and concussion grenades, causing many Palestinians to suffer the effects of tear gas inhalation. Protests also took place in several parts of Bethlehem, especially at the city's northern entrance. (IMEMC 6 August 2022)
- Israeli Occupation Forces (IOF) continue its offensive on the Gaza Strip for the second day in a row as they intensively struck several houses, agricultural lands and military sites. As a result, two Palestinians were killed and 7 others were injured, including 2 women and 4 children. The Gaza Electricity Distribution Company (GEDCO) announced that it has been officially informed by the Palestinian Energy Authority that Gaza's sole Power Plant will shut down at 12:00 after fuel supplies were halted due to the closure of the crossings since last Tuesday which will lead to electricity shortage and affect all vital facilities in Gaza and will worsen the humanitarian situation. The death toll since the beginning of the Israeli offensive has risen to 12, including 4 civilians: a woman and a girl, while 55 others have been injured, including 13 children and 6 women. 84 Palestinians have been injured, including 23 children and 13 women; 4 of them are in serious condition. The following are the most significant developments: An artillery shell fell on the roof of Al-Quds Open University building in Beit Lahia, north of the Gaza Strip, causing a hole in its roof and damage to the study halls. The IOF's warplanes fired a missile at a land in al-Zanna area in Bani Suheila village, east of Khan Yunis. As a result, 2 Palestinians were injured: one of them namely Tameem Ghassan 'Abdullah Hijazi (24) died upon arrival at the hospital while the other identified as Osama 'Abed al-Rahman Hussain al-Souri (28) died around 3 hours later. The IOF's warplanes launched 2 missiles at an uninhabited house in Bani Suheila village, east of Khan Yunis. As a result, the house was destroyed, and a child in the nearby area was slightly injured. Also, a woman was injured due to an Israeli strike on a nearby military site, western Khan Yunis. Around the same time, IOF's warplanes targeted a 3-storey house belonging to Shamalakh family in Sheikh Ijlin neighborhood in Gaza City, and completely destroyed it; meanwhile, nearby houses sustained severe damage, but no casualties were reported. Moreover, IOF's warplanes launched several airstrikes on military sites and empty and agricultural lands across the Gaza Strip. (PCHRGZA 6 August 2022)

- Israeli Occupation Forces (IOF) continue its offensive on the Gaza Strip for the second day in a row. The death toll since the beginning of the Israeli offensive has risen to 16, including 6 civilians: 2 women and a girl, while 140 others have been injured, including 23 children, 13 women and 5 in serious condition. The following are the most significant developments: IOF's warplanes targeted a 3-storey house belonging to Khalifah family, western Gaza, and completely destroyed it, rendering 4 families of 11 individuals, including 3 children and 4 women, homeless. Before the attack, IOF had warned one of the neighbors by phone to evacuate and then targeted the house with a drone missile. Around 15 minutes later, IOF's warplanes bombed the house, completely destroyed it, and caused damage to nearby houses. The IOF's warplanes launched a missile at an agricultural land in Sho'asha area, northeastern Jabalia in the northern Gaza Strip. As a result, Hasan Mohammed Yousif Mansour (28) was killed and 'Abdel Rahman 'Ali Hussein Ibrahim (22) was seriously injured and referred to al-Shifa Hospital in Gaza City, where he succumbed to his injury at around 18:35. Around the same time, an IOF's drone fired a missile at a group of people in northwestern Beit Hanoun, northern Gaza Strip. As a result, Na'amah Tulbah Hammad Abu Qaydah (60) was killed after her body was torn into pieces. Also, 5 children from the same family and relatives were injured. According to field investigations, during the wedding of Na'amah's son, Akram Mohammed 'Eid Abu Qaydah (23), a group of people were unjustifiably targeted only moments after arriving at the bride's house and stepping out of a Hyundai Tucson SUV. 14:00: 3 civilians, including a woman and a child, were injured after an IOF warplane launched 2 missiles at an agricultural land, northwestern Beit Lahia village. The IOF also fired a shell at a group of people gathering in front of Hussein 'Ali al-Zuwaidi's house, northeastern Beit Hanoun, northern Gaza Strip. As a result, 2 civilians, including the house owner's son, Nour Al-Deen (18), sustained shrapnel wounds all over their bodies and was pronounced dead at around 18:30. In the afternoon, at different times, IOF's drones launched missiles at 4 houses in Beit Hanoun, but no casualties were reported. A woman was injured after IOF targeted a land with 3 missiles, north of al-Nuseirat refugee camp; as a result, nearby houses sustained damage. 18:00: 3 Palestinians, including a girl, were injured after IOF targeted with a missile a group of people near Abu Sharekh intersection in Jabalia. Israeli Settler Violence

- Israeli colonizers from “Ramat Yishai” settlement outpost attacked Palestinian homes and caused damage to several cars in Shallala Street in the center of the southern West Bank city of Hebron. Many colonizers invaded the area and hurled stones at several homes, in addition to causing damage to many parked cars. Israeli soldiers were standing with the colonizers while they were attacking the Palestinians cars and just watched the attacked without intervening. The owners of two of the damaged cars have been identified as Samer Zahda and Nidal Zeitoun. The colonizers also tried to close many streets in Hebron and hurled insults at the Palestinian families, especially near the permanent Israeli military roadblock at the entrance of the Tal Romeida area in the city. (IMEMC 6 August 2022)
- Tension is expected to be high on Sunday as Jewish groups are planning a mass break-in into Al-Aqsa Mosque, a Muslim holy place located in Jerusalem’s Old City, marking a Jewish holiday. The so-called Temple Mount groups, who seek to destroy Al-Aqsa Mosque and replace it with a Jewish temple, called on their followers to be present at the Muslim holy place on Sunday to mark the Tisha B’av (the ninth of Av) holiday, a day of fasting marking the alleged destruction of the two Jewish temples more than two thousand years ago. Home Demolition & Demolition threats

- Israeli warplanes attacked today and destroyed two residential buildings in Gaza city displacing their residents and damaging nearby houses as dozens of people were injured in the ongoing Israeli airstrikes throughout the Gaza Strip. Warplanes fired missiles at a three-story building owned by the Shamlakh family in Sheikh Ijjilin neighborhood of Gaza City apparently minutes after its residents received a phone call telling them to evacuate the building since it was going to be bombed. The building was totally destroyed and all houses around it were also heavily damaged leaving more than 100 people homeless. An Israeli drone first fired a warning missile near a multi-story building west of Gaza city to force its residents to leave it and minutes later fired missiles directly at the building destroying it in total and making it the second building Israel bombed and destroyed in Gaza city in the current wave of attacks. Meanwhile, at least 13 people, mainly children, were injured in strikes in Gaza City. Warplanes also attacked locations in Khan Yunis, south of the Gaza Strip, causing injuries and heavy damage to property and causing panic among residents, mainly children. (Wafa 6 August 2022)
