Violations of the Israeli Occupation Army

- Israeli soldiers invaded the at-Tour and Silwan towns in occupied Jerusalem, leading to protests before the army fired many gas bombs and concussion grenades. Several army jeeps invaded the at-Tour town, leading to protests before the soldiers fired many gas bombs and concussion grenades at the Palestinians and surrounding homes. The soldiers sprayed many homes and streets with wastewater to force the Palestinians to leave. (IMEMC 24 September 2022)
- The Israeli soldiers invaded Silwan town and closed several streets before firing gas bombs and concussion grenades. The soldiers installed roadblocks, stopped and searched cars, and interrogated several Palestinians while inspecting their ID cards. (IMEMC 24 September 2022)
- Israeli soldiers at the Al-Karama Border Cross between the occupied West Bank and Jordan detained and interrogated a young man and informed him he was barred from traveling abroad. The Palestinian, Ashraf Mohammad Natour, 45, from Jenin in the northern part of the West Bank, was interrogated for more than five hours while heading to Jordan. He was then informed that he was barred from traveling abroad but was not given a reason for this arbitrary ban. It is worth mentioning that Ashraf is a former political prisoner who was held by Israeli for ten years. (IMEMC 24 September 2022)
- Israeli soldiers invaded Sebastia town, northwest of the northern West Bank city of Nablus, and caused many Palestinians to suffer the effects of tear gas inhalation. Many Israeli army vehicles invaded the town and fired gas bombs and several live rounds at the Palestinians to force them to leave the streets. The attack led to protests before the soldiers fired gas bombs and concussion grenades, causing many Palestinians to suffer the effects of tear gas inhalation. The soldiers also closed streets and prevented the Palestinians from crossing, especially at the town's main entrance. (IMEMC 24 September 2022)

- Israeli soldiers fatally shot a Palestinian whose car accidentally collided with an empty police vehicle near Nablus, in the northern part of the occupied West Bank. The slain Palestinian, Mohammad Ali Hussein Abu Kafia, 36, was from Beit Ijza village, northwest of occupied Jerusalem. He was a teacher, an education counselor, and a married father of three children; the youngest is only six years of age. The Israeli army and various Israeli media outlets justified the fatal shooting by describing the traffic accident as a “deliberate ramming attack.” (IMEMC 24 September 2022)
- Israeli navy ships fired many live rounds, gas bombs, and flares at Palestinian fishing boats in northern Gaza, while Israeli soldiers fired many live rounds at a stone factory in central Gaza. The Israeli navy fired a barrage of live rounds, gas bombs, and flares at several Palestinian fishing boats in Gaza territorial waters near the shores of Jabalia, Beit Lahia, Al-Waha, and As-Sudaniyya, in northern Gaza. The attacks caused damage and forced the fishermen to leave, fearing further Israeli escalation and violations of their right to fish to provide for their families. Also, the soldiers fired many live rounds and gas bombs at workers in a stone factory east of Deir Al-Balah, in central Gaza, forcing them to leave. (IMEMC 24 September 2022)
- Israeli soldiers injured three Palestinian journalists while reporting on a procession against the illegal Israeli colonialist activities in Masafer Yatta, south of Hebron, in the southern part of the occupied West Bank. The soldiers shot Mashhour al-Wihwah, a cameraman working for the WAFA Palestinian New Agency, with a gas bomb fired directly at him and caused the severe effects of tear gas inhalation to Fadi Khallaf, who works for Palestine TV and fainted due to tear gas inhalation and Photojournalist Wisam al-Hashlamoun who suffered the severe effects of tear gas inhalation. The soldiers also prevented many international peace activists from reaching the Tiwana village in Yatta town, south of Hebron, who were trying to help the Palestinians, subject to constant attacks and violations by the illegal fanatic colonizers and the Israeli soldiers. The processions organized by the Committees and the Protections and Steadfastness Committees to help and support the Palestinians, especially since the Israeli occupation wants to illegally annex more Palestinian lands to build colonies and military bases. (IMEMC 24 September 2022)

- The Israeli occupation forces (IOF) quelled the anti-settlement march that condemned the Israeli plan to displace Palestinian residents of al-Tuwana village from their lands in the West Bank city of Hebron. The IOF soldiers fired rubber-coated metal bullets and tear gas bombs at the Palestinian protestors, causing breathing problems to several Palestinians including three journalists. The IOF soldiers intensified their presence in the Masafer Yatta communities in Hebron, imposing restrictions on Palestinian civilians and foreign activists and preventing them from reaching al-Tuwana village. (PALINFO 24 September 2022)
- The all-Israeli municipality of occupied Jerusalem tonight lit up the historic wall of Jerusalem with Talmudic pictures and slogans. The municipality lit up the historic wall of Jerusalem with Talmudic images and slogans under the pretext of celebrating the so-called Hebrew New Year. The lighting focused on sections of the wall from Damascus Gate to Jaffa Gate. The development coincides with calls by Jewish fanatics to hold mass break-ins into the Al-Aqsa Mosque compound in Jerusalem's Old City starting early next week. Jewish ultranationalist groups have called on their followers for mass presence at the Mosque during the upcoming Jewish New Year, which starts on Monday, and the following Sukkot holiday. Some have even called for blowing horns during the Jewish religious rituals inside the yards of the holy compound. (Wafa 24 September 2022)
- Israeli occupation forces opened gunfire at Palestinians working at a quarry to the east of Deir el-Balah city, in the central Gaza Strip without causing any injury. In addition to opening fire, the Israeli soldiers stationed along the eastern frontier of the Gaza Strip also shot tear gas canisters at the workers, forcing them to leave the area for safer grounds. (Wafa 24 September 2022)
- The Israeli occupation forces prevented Palestinians and foreign solidarity activists from reaching the village of al-Tuwana in Masafer Yatta, in the South Hebron Hills, to support the village residents resisting Israeli settlements and attempts to dislodge them from their lands and homes. This activity was intended to support residents in the Masafer Yatta communities in light of the attacks they face from the occupation authorities, which seek to seize their lands in favor of settlements and the establishment of military training camps. The soldiers prevented the participants in the activity from reaching al-Tuwana, and seized the keys to their vehicles while shooting sound bombs and tear gas at them to disperse them. Three journalists were hurt in the process, including Wafa photojournalist Mashhour Wehwah, who was hit by a tear gas canister, and

- Fadi Khlaf from Palestine TV, who lost consciousness, as well as photojournalist Wisam Hashlamon. (Wafa 24 September 2022)
- Classes were suspended at Khaled Rashid School in al-Tur neighborhood of occupied East Jerusalem after it was flooded with skunk water sprayed at the school by the occupation forces during the clashes that broke out yesterday in the neighborhood. The clashes broke out after Israeli forces shot and killed Mohammad Abu Jumaa, 23, a resident of the neighborhood following an alleged stabbing attack near the illegal settlement of Modain. During the clashes, the Israeli occupation forces used firepower against the Palestinian residents of the neighborhood and a police van sprayed the homes and buildings with skunk water causing an unbearable foul odor all over the neighborhood. As a result of the foul odor, classes at Khaled Rashed school, which were flooded with skunk water, were suspended today. (Wafa 24 September 2022)
 - Clashes erupted between Palestinian youths and the Israeli occupation forces, when the latter stormed Shuafat refugee camp, northeast of occupied Jerusalem, and spread in its streets, which led to the outbreak of confrontations, during which the occupation soldiers fired rubber-coated metal bullets, sound and gas bombs. (Wafa 24 September 2022)

Israeli Settler Violence

- For several days now, Israeli settlers have been badgering Palestinian residents of Khallet Makhoul, in the occupied northern Jordan Valley. The official of one of the settlement outposts in the Jordan Valley stormed the community this morning and drove his vehicle between the residents' tents in a provocative manner. The settlers have been carrying out acts of hooliganism and provocations against the residents for days. Settlers yesterday chased and pushed out the shepherds while grazing in the fields after which the occupation forces stormed the tents of one of the residents. (Wafa 24 September 2022)
- Dozens of Palestinians suffocated after the Israeli occupation forces stormed Sebastia town, northwest of Nablus amid heavy fire of live bullets and tear gas, which led to clashes, during which dozens of Palestinians suffocated. (Wafa 24 September 2022)
