

Israeli Violations' Activities in the occupied State of Palestine

25 October 2022

The daily report highlights the violations behind Israeli home demolitions and demolition threats in the occupied Palestinian territory, the confiscation and razing of lands, the uprooting and destruction of fruit trees, the expansion of settlements and erection of outposts, the brutality of the Israeli Occupation Army, the Israeli settlers violence against Palestinian civilians and properties, the erection of checkpoints, the construction of the Israeli segregation wall and the issuance of military orders for the various Israeli purposes.

The Violations are based on reports provided by field workers and/or news sources.

The text is not quoted directly from the sources but is edited for clarity.

The daily report does not necessarily reflect ARIJ's opinion.

This DAILY REPORT is prepared as part of the project entitled ASSESSING THE IMPEDIMENTS BEFORE THE TWO-STATE SOLUTION, which is financially supported by the EU. However, the content of this presentation is the sole responsibility of ARIJ & LRC and does not necessarily reflect those of the donors.

Violations of the Israeli Occupation Army

- On Tuesday night, Israeli soldiers shot four young men, including two with live fire, during protests that erupted after the army invaded Beit Ummar town, north of Hebron, in the occupied West Bank. Dozens of Palestinians marched in the Aseeda area in Beit Ummar, protesting the escalating Israeli crimes and violations against the Palestinian people, including the Tuesday dawn invasion of Nablus in which Israeli soldiers killed five Palestinians and injured twenty-one, including four who suffered life-threatening wounds. Mohammad Ayyad Awad, a local nonviolent activist, said many army jeeps invaded the town and attacked the protesters with live fire, rubber-coated steel bullets, gas bombs, and concussion grenades. Awad added that the soldiers shot two Palestinians with live fire; one of them, 19 years of age, was shot in his leg, and the bullets caused serious fractures to his bones before he was rushed to a hospital in Hebron city. He also said that the other Palestinian was shot with live fire in the leg and received treatment in a local clinic before he was discharged. Two Palestinians were shot with rubber-coated steel bullets, one in the should and one in the army before Palestinian Red Crescent Medics provided them with the needed treatment. Many Palestinians suffered the severe effects of tear gas inhalation. (IMEMC 25 October 2022)
- On Tuesday, Israeli soldiers abducted a student and attacked a school bus wounding many schoolchildren in two separate attacks in occupied Jerusalem in the West Bank. Media sources said the soldiers stopped a Palestinian near Bab Hutta near the Al-Aqsa Mosque and took him to an unknown destination. The sources added that the student, who remained unidentified at the time of this report, was heading to his school when the soldiers abducted him and took him to a detention facility. Furthermore, the soldiers fired gas bombs at a school bus in Anata town, northeast of Jerusalem, causing many children to suffer the effects of tear gas inhalation. Also, the soldiers invaded the Khallet Al-Qa'ir area near Yaqin community in Bani Neim town, east of Hebron in the southern part of the occupied West Bank, and demolished an under-construction home. In addition, the soldiers shot a Palestinian worker near a section of the illegal Annexation Wall, west of Hebron, in the southern part of the occupied West Bank, and

- abducted him. On Tuesday dawn, Israeli soldiers killed five Palestinians and injured twenty-one, including four who suffered life-threatening wounds, during an invasion of the center of Nablus city, in the northern part of the occupied West Bank. Also at dawn, Israeli soldiers killed Qussai Mahmoud Tamimi, 19, in Nabi Saleh, north of Ramallah, in the central part of the occupied West Bank. (IMEMC 25 October 2022)
- On Tuesday, Israeli soldiers shot a Palestinian worker near a section of the illegal Annexation Wall, west of Hebron, in the southern part of the occupied West Bank, and abducted him. Media sources said the soldiers fired live rounds at Palestinian workers, wounding Issa Abdullah Awawda, with a live round in the leg before abducting him. The soldiers also chased and attempted to abduct some Palestinian workers in the area after preventing them from crossing. It is worth mentioning that, on October 22, 2022, the soldiers killed a Palestinian worker, Rabi Arafa Rabi, 32, from Qalqilia, after shooting him near a military roadblock of a section of the illegal Annexation Wall southeast of Qalqilia, in the northern part of the occupied West Bank. In related news, several army vehicles invaded Kharsa village southwest of Hebron, leading to protests. The soldiers also caused several Palestinians at the northern entrance of Bethlehem city, south of occupied Jerusalem. In Azzoun town, east of the northern West Bank city of Qalqilia, the soldiers abducted a Palestinian, Antas Hisham Adwan, 42, after storming his home and ransacking it. (IMEMC 25 October 2022)
 - On Tuesday dawn, Israeli soldiers killed five Palestinians and injured twenty-one, including four who suffered life-threatening wounds, during an invasion of the center of Nablus city, in the northern part of the occupied West Bank. Update: The Health Ministry has confirmed, Tuesday morning, the death of Mashal Zahi Ahmad Baghdadi, 27, from serious wounds he suffered during the massive Israeli military invasion of Nablus. Update: In an official statement, the Palestinian Health Ministry in Ramallah identified the slain Palestinians in Nablus as: Hamdi Sbeih Ramzi Qayyim, 30. Ali Khaled Omar Antar, 26. Hamdi Mohammad Sabri Sharaf, 35. Wadea' Sbeih Hweih, 31. The Health Ministry has confirmed the army shot twenty-four Palestinians, adding that most of the wounded Palestinians were shot in the upper body; four of them suffered serious injuries. Palestine TV said the army used an armed drones in firing missiles into a home in Nablus where many fighters were hiding and exchanging fire with the soldiers, before Wadea' was killed. Six Palestinians managed to escape unharmed. The Israeli missiles also caused damage to many surrounding homes and several mild injuries among the families. Palestine TV added that the missiles fired by the Israeli army drones also produced heavy chemical smells. The Israeli army invaded many neighborhoods and surrounded many Palestinians in the Old City of Nablus and exchanged fire with resistance fighters before firing shells at them. One of the slain Palestinians, Hamdi Qayyim, was killed after the army fired a missile at his car, severely mutilating his body. The Palestinian Health Ministry has confirmed the death of four Palestinians by Israeli army fire and added that nineteen were injured, one moderately and four seriously. At least fourteen of the wounded injured Palestinians were rushed to Rafidia hospital in Nablus. Local sources said the soldiers invaded and ransacked many homes and occupied rooftops of tall buildings to use as firing posts, especially for the army sharpshooters. The soldiers also fired many live rounds at Palestinian police and national security officers, wounding four. (IMEMC 25 October 2022)

- On Tuesday dawn, Israeli soldiers killed a Palestinian in Nabi Saleh village, north of Ramallah, in the central part of the occupied West Bank. In a brief statement, the Palestinian Health Ministry said the soldiers killed a Palestinian after shooting him with live fire in the chest. The Palestinian was killed during protests that erupted when many army jeeps invaded the village before the soldiers stormed and searched homes. Medical sources said the slain Palestinian has been identified as Qussai Mahmoud Tamimi, 19, from Nabi Saleh. Hundreds of Palestinians marched carrying his corpse and chanting for ongoing resistance until liberation and independence and denouncing the escalating Israeli crimes and violations against the Palestinian people. (IMEMC 25 October 2022)
- Several Palestinian citizens were injured on Tuesday during a raid by the Israeli occupation forces (IOF) in the center of the West Bank city of al-Khalil. Local sources reported that six Palestinian citizens were wounded after IOF soldiers fired live bullets and rubber-coated metal bullets at Palestinians in the Bab al-Zawiya area in the center of al-Khalil. Meanwhile, three Palestinian young men were injured and scores suffered breathing problems during clashes that erupted between Palestinian youths and IOF soldiers at the northern entrance of al-Khalil. Moreover, a Palestinian young man was injured in the foot by the IOF live bullets at the northern entrance of the West Bank city of al-

Bireh. Furthermore, a Palestinian young man was injured by the IOF live bullets in the thigh during clashes between Palestinian youths and Israeli soldiers at the entrance of Aida camp, north of the West Bank city of Bethlehem, according to security sources. In a related development, two Palestinian young men were injured after Israeli police fired tear gas bombs and stun grenades in addition to live bullets at Palestinian citizens in Biddu town northwest of Jerusalem. According to medical sources, the two young men sustained stable wounds in the thigh by the IOF explosive "Tutu" live bullets. In another development, the Palestinian young man Mohammad Issa from Biddu town was detained for a few hours while he was at his workplace in Rafat town northwest of Jerusalem. In addition, Israeli police detained 17-year-old Arafat Barqan after storming his family's home in the Sheikh Jarrah neighborhood, according to local sources. Moreover, Israeli soldiers arrested the Palestinian citizen Antar Adwan, 42, after storming his house in Azzun village east of the West Bank city of Qalqilya. In a separate incident, IOF soldiers set up mound blocks at the entrances leading to the main road of the Huwara town south of the West Bank city of Nablus, in a bid to tighten the siege imposed on Nablus for 15 days. Furthermore, extremist Jewish settlers hurled stones at Palestinian citizens north of Einabous village south of Nablus, according to local sources. (PALINFO 25 October 2022)

- A number of Palestinian school students suffered from their exposure to tear gas on Tuesday when the Israeli occupation forces (IOF) attacked them in Bethlehem City. According to local sources, violent clashes broke out in the Old City of Bethlehem after the IOF attacked school students with volleys of tear gas canisters and stun grenades. Several students received on-site medical assistance after inhaling tear gas. Early Tuesday morning, at least six Palestinians were killed and 21 were wounded after the IOF raided areas in the occupied West Bank. (PALINFO 25 October 2022)

Israeli Settler Violence

- Dozens of extremist Jewish settlers desecrated the Aqsa Mosque in Occupied Jerusalem under tight police protection on Tuesday morning and later in the afternoon. At least 149 settlers entered the Mosque in different groups through its Maghariba Gate and toured its courtyards under police guard, according to al-Qastal News website. During their tours at the Islamic holy site, the settlers received lectures from rabbis about the alleged temple mount and a number of them provocatively performed Talmudic prayers. Meanwhile, the Israeli occupation police imposed movement restrictions on Muslim worshipers at the Aqsa Mosque's entrances and gates. (PALINFO 25 October 2022)

Home Demolition & Demolition threats

- On Tuesday, Israeli soldiers invaded the Khallet Al-Qa'ir area near Yaqin community in Bani Neim town, east of Hebron in the southern part of the occupied West Bank, and demolished an under-construction home. Media sources said several army vehicles, including bulldozers, invaded the area and demolished an under-construction two-story home owned by Mohammad Rashid D'eis. Each floor of the demolished property was 180 square meters. They added that the soldiers claimed the two-story home was being built without a permit from the "Civil Administration Office," the administrative branch of the illegal Israeli occupation. The soldiers also abducted the property's owner and a young man, Yousef Majed Harasha, and fired many gas bombs and concussion grenades, wounding several Palestinians. (IMEMC 25 October 2022)