

Israeli Violations' Activities in the occupied State of Palestine

8 October 2022

The daily report highlights the violations behind Israeli home demolitions and demolition threats in the occupied Palestinian territory, the confiscation and razing of lands, the uprooting and destruction of fruit trees, the expansion of settlements and erection of outposts, the brutality of the Israeli Occupation Army, the Israeli settlers violence against Palestinian civilians and properties, the erection of checkpoints, the construction of the Israeli segregation wall and the issuance of military orders for the various Israeli purposes.

The Violations are based on reports provided by field workers and/or news sources.

The text is not quoted directly from the sources but is edited for clarity.

The daily report does not necessarily reflect ARIJ's opinion.

This DAILY REPORT is prepared as part of the project entitled ASSESSING THE IMPEDIMENTS BEFORE THE TWO-STATE SOLUTION, which is financially supported by the EU. However, the content of this presentation is the sole responsibility of ARIJ & LRC and does not necessarily reflect those of the donors.

Violations of the Israeli Occupation Army

- Israeli occupation forces today attacked and dispersed hundreds of Palestinian civilians and injured and arrested some of them while celebrating Prophet Mohammad's Birthday in the vicinity of Damascus Gate in occupied Jerusalem, according to local sources. Wafa correspondent said a large number of Israeli police officers raided Bab al-Amoud (Damascus Gate) plaza in occupied Jerusalem, as hundreds of Palestinians were celebrating the occasion. She said police officers assaulted the attendees and injured and arrested many of them, dispersing the crowd by force. At least six Palestinians were arrested by the Israeli police during the attack, she added. Prior to this, hundreds of Palestinians from the city and other areas gathered at the plaza — located on the north side of Jerusalem's Walled Old City — to celebrate the holiday. The events remained peaceful until Israeli police raided the plaza, beating Palestinians and arresting many of them. Israel captured East Jerusalem, where the plaza is located, during the Six-Day War in 1967 in a move never recognized by the international community. (IMEMC 8 October 2022)
- On Saturday dawn, many armored Israeli military vehicles invaded the Jenin city and Jenin refugee camp in the northern part of the occupied West Bank, killing two Palestinians and injuring at least eleven, three seriously. Undercover soldiers first invaded Jenin and Jenin refugee camp, then dozens of armored military vehicles invaded the refugee camp from several directions, leading to protests. Medical sources at Ibn Sina Specialist Hospital in Jenin said the soldiers killed Mahmoud Moayyad Sous, 18, after shooting him with a live round in the neck and added that the soldiers also shot seven Palestinians, three seriously. One of the seriously wounded Palestinians, Ahmad Mohammad Hussein Daraghma, 24, from Tubas in the northeastern West Bank, succumbed to serious wounds he suffered during protests in Jenin city. Medical sources at the Jenin governmental hospital said Ahmad suffered serious gunshot wounds to the head and succumbed to his injuries. The head of the Jenin governmental hospital, Wisam Bakr, said the medical center provided treatment to one Palestinian who was shot in the shoulder and two in the lower extremities. Also, the Palestinian Health Ministry said the soldiers shot six Palestinians in the lower extremities before the medics rushed them to Jenin governmental hospital. Dozens of Palestinians suffered the effects of tear gas inhalation, cuts, and bruises before receiving treatment from local medics. Furthermore, medical sources at Ibn Sina hospital said an Israeli army jeep rammed Anwar Abu as-Siba' and his daughter, Eman, while standing in front of their home in the refugee camp. The soldiers also fired dozens of gas bombs, smoke, and concussion grenades at Palestinian protesters and surrounding homes. During the Israeli invasion, Palestinian resistance fighters exchanged fire with the soldiers in Jenin and the Jenin refugee camp, while some protesters also hurled stones and pipe bombs at the army vehicles. It is worth mentioning that the soldiers also used military helicopters during the invasion. In addition, the Quds News Network said the soldiers fired live rounds at its correspondent and other Palestinian journalists in the refugee camp and surrounding areas. The soldiers also stormed and ransacked several homes, causing damage, and surrounded a home, leading to an exchange of fire, before abducting a young man, Saleh Abu Zreina. The soldiers invaded the home to abduct Mohammad Abu Zreina, but took his brother, Saleh, when they could not local Mohammad. After killing the two Palestinians and wounding at least eleven, the soldiers withdrew from the refugee camp and Jenin city. (IMEMC 8 October 2022)

- The Israeli occupation forces (IOF) prevented on Saturday morning a group of Palestinian farmers from gathering olives from their groves in an agricultural area in Awarta town, southeast of Nablus. According to local sources, Awarta farmers were denied access to their olive groves in the eastern area of the town for the second consecutive day. On Friday, local farmers in the same town were attacked by the IOF with tear gas canisters after they tried to fend off aggressive practices by extremist Jewish settlers. (PALINFO 8 October 2022)