Brutality of the Israeli Occupation Army

- The Israeli Occupation Army raided several Palestinian houses and messed with their contents and arrested the journalist Amin Abu Warda from Ballata refugee camp, Mo'aed Sharab from Awrta east of the city, Mohmad Amer Manko (17 years old) and Ahmad Sabe' Al 'Aysh (20years old) at Huwwara checkpoint.
- The Israeli Occupation Army arrested 12 citizens from Hebron Governorate, of whom, citizen Kahlid Majed Mhamd Sobhi Ab Shkidem (22 years old) from Al Rahma Mountain (Jabal Al Rahma) was known. In addition, the Israeli soldiers stormed Beit 'Awwa town west of Hebron and arrested Mo'taz Naer Abdalla Mosalma (16 years old) and Ayman Ra'ef Abd Al-Fatah Moslama (16 years old).

- Israeli Occupation Army closed the main entrance of Susiya School, southeast of Yatta south of Hebron city, trapping the teachers and students inside the school and their vehicles inside. It is worth to mention that the IOA stormed Susiya school about a month ago and handed its principal notices to demolish the school, a water well and three greenhouses near the school.

Home Demolition and Demolition Threats

- The Israeli Occupation Army demolished without pre-notification a house and 2 animal barracks with an area 130 meters square in Khirbet Al Muntar Al-Sharqiya near Barta'a Ash-Sharqiya village south of Jenin. The demolished house is owned by the two brothers Rubhi and Sobhi Hassan Zaid. The IOA hindered owners of the demolished structures from getting their properties out the house.

Confiscation and Razing lands

- The Israeli Occupation Bulldozers razed 5 dunums of lands planted with olive and almonds trees and demolished a water well owned by Al Fakhori family in Al Majd area southwest of Dura town in Hebron city.

Israeli military orders

- Crews of the Israeli Municipality of Jerusalem accompanied the Israeli police and handed demolition orders to Palestinian houses and shops in Ein Al-Luza neighborhood in Silwan city in Jerusalem under the pretext of lacking valid building permits. Also, crews of the Israeli Tax Authority raided shops in Silwan city and issued regularities and fined Palestinian owners.

- Israeli authorities handed a Palestinian elderly woman; Refqa Al-Kord, (85 years old) a notice demanding her to pay rent for the house she owns in Sheikh Jarrah neighborhood in Jerusalem. She has been getting notices for a while demanding her to pay rent for the past seven years for the benefit of settlements' associations. The notice included a warning that if the rent was not paid, Al-Kord has to evacuate the house immediately.

Expansion of settlements

- The Israeli regional construction and Planning Committee will discuss a plan to build 130 housing units in Gilo settlement south Jerusalem city on 6 dunums of previously confiscated lands of Sharafat village. The plan holds number 13290. According to the construction and Planning Committee, the land was prepared in the past to have a hotel established on it, but a group of Israeli investors called "Brothers of Israel" send a request to the Israeli Municipality to let the land for residential use, which in turn will expand the settlement of Gilo towards Sharfat village by adding 4 buildings, each consists of 12 floors.
