Brutality of the Israeli Occupation Army

- The Israeli Occupation Army arrested Amar Ahmad Abd Al-Latif Al-Rifa'i from 'Anata town northeast of Jerusalem city after raiding his house and messing with its contents.
- The Israeli Occupation Army closed all the entrances of Beit Ummar town north of Hebron city with cement blocks.

- The Israeli Occupation Authorities released prisoner Mohammad Nabih Hassan Qebha (24 years old) from Barta'a Ash Sharqiya southwest of Jenin after spending 5 years old in jail.
- Israeli bulldozers increased its work speed to establish Talmudic gardens in the area between Bab Al-'Amud and Bab Al-Sahira two of the most famous gates of the Old City of Jerusalem in an attempt to Judaize the city and change its historical and cultural character. Several Israeli bulldozers increased their work pace more than usual, after finishing the first part of work in the area near the Bab Al-'Amud and in As Sultan Suleiman street, adjacent to the Old City's walls which character was completely changed through the establishment of car parking lots and a Talmudic garden near Sulaiman cave (Mugharet Sulaiman) in Sultan Sulaiman Street. Similar works are under way in Tantur Faron, an area south of Al-Aqsa mosque. In addition, similar works are also under way in Wadi al-Rababa, an area in Silwan south of Al-Aqsa Mosque in order to establish Talmudic gardens, near al-Bustan neighborhood in Silwan, aiming to remove the entire neighborhood after demolishing its 88 houses and displacing about 1600 Palestinian residents.

Israeli Settlers Violence

- The Israeli settlers of Ramat Yishai settlement set fire into Han'a Abu Haikal car for the fifth time to force her to leave the house in Tel Rumeida area in Hebron city and threw stones at her house. It is worth mentioning that settlers offered 24 million dollars for her to leave the house.

Expansion of Settlements

- Israeli district committee for planning and building in the Jerusalem city would discuss the plan to build 204 housing units in the French Hill settlement in east Jerusalem.
