Others

- In a statement by the PLO Department of International Relations said that Israel approved the building of 734 housing units in East Jerusalem settlements and confiscated 1367 dunums of land in and around the occupied city since the beginning of 2012. The statement added that settlement activities in East Jerusalem come in the wake of the Israeli government's policy to Judaize and annex the city and make any political solution impossible. The statement said the international community is overlooking Israeli practices and settlement escalation in Jerusalem, which emboldens the Israeli occupation and measures against Palestinian residents of the city. It demanded the international community to force Israel to abide by international law when dealing with the occupied territories.
