

ARIJ Daily Report

Applied Research Institute - Jerusalem (ARIJ)

P.O Box 860, Caritas Street – Bethlehem
Phone: (+972) 2 2741889, Fax: (+972) 2 2776966
pmaster@arij.org | <http://www.arij.org>

Israeli Violations' Activities in the oPt

21 March 2012

The daily report highlights the violations behind Israeli home demolitions and demolition threats in the occupied Palestinian territory, the confiscation and razing of lands, the uprooting and destruction of fruit trees, the expansion of settlements and erection of outposts, the brutality of the Israeli Occupation Army, the Israeli settlers violence against Palestinian civilians and properties, the erection of checkpoints, the construction of the Israeli segregation wall and the issuance of military orders for the various Israeli purposes.

The Violations are based on reports provided by field workers and/or news sources.

The text is not quoted directly from the sources but is edited for clarity.

The daily report does not necessarily reflect ARIJ's opinion.

Brutality of the Israeli Occupation Army

- The Israeli Occupation Army raided Al Nabi Musa shrine south of Jericho city and handed its employee notifications to interview the Israeli military intelligence, and told them about their intention to carry out some restoration works.
- The Israeli Occupation Army removed all the mounds and cement blocks in At Tur military checkpoint on the entrance of Jabal at Tur south of Nablus city. The IOA prohibited Palestinian citizens from crossing the checkpoint and were only allowed to enter upon corporation with the Israeli side.

- The Israeli Occupation Army raided Beit Ummar town north of Hebron city and arrested Samer Mohamd Al-'Alami (20 years old) and took him to Gush Etzion detention center during the clashes that took place between the Army and the residents. The IOA fired tear gas and sound bombs at he residents.
- Israeli Occupation Army stormed An Nabi Saleh village northwest of Ramallah city, broke into and searched several houses causing damage to personal property, before the army confiscated private property, including computers, documents and phones. The media office of the Nonviolent Resistance Committee in Nabi Saleh reported that the army also broke into its building and confiscated a computer, in addition to confiscating three computers from the house of Basem At-Tamimi, who is currently in the Israeli prisons. The Army also invaded the home of Naji At-Tamimi, the coordinator of the Popular Committee in the village, and confiscated his computer after searching his house. At-Tamimi indicated that the army also confiscated a mobile phone, USB internet adaptors, personal documents, certificates, books, and a magazine published by the nonviolent resistance committee in the village. The soldiers also confiscated magazines printed by the Israeli Information Center for Human Rights in the Occupied Territories, (B'Tselem).The attack against the village started after the army blocked all roads leading to it, and dozens of soldiers were deployed in its streets before breaking into and searching several homes.
- The Israeli Occupation Army raided more than 20 Palestinian houses in Beitein village in Ramallah city at night. The IOA gathered residents of the raided house in one room and took photos of the remaining rooms in the houses. During the raiding process, the IOA destroyed the doors of a number of houses and stores.
- The Israeli Occupation Army arrested Ja'far Ez Deen Qa'dan (40 years old) after raiding and searching his house and messing with its contents in 'Araba town south of Jenin city.
- The Israeli Occupation Army arrested Abd Al-Karim Hajla (25 years old) from Sanniriya village south of Qalqilyah city and took him to unknown destination; The IOA also raided several Palestinian houses and messed with its contents. Of the raided houses, the following were known: Yousef Abu Hajla, Majd Abu Hajla, Nabil Yunis, Saef Omar, Ahmad Othman, Mohamd Ezat and Khalid Al-Shiekh.

- The Israeli Occupation Army raided the house of Khader Abd Al-Mihsen Al-'Alami (42 years old) in Beit Ummar town north of Hebron city and handed his sons Mohamad (20 years old) and Mamduh (19 years old) notifications to interview the Israeli Intelligence.

Israeli settlers violence

- The residents of Al-Malih in the Jordan valley indicated that tens of Israeli settlers raided the area and chased the sheep.

Israeli military orders

- The Israeli High Court issued an order which requires the head of the Israeli Civil Administration in the West Bank to evacuate Palestinian lands owned by an Israeli settler near Kedumim settlement in Qalqilyah Governorate. According to Israeli sources, the Israeli settler confiscated the land and planted it with olive trees, where the Court ordered to evacuate it by May 10, 2012.

Confiscation & Razing of lands

- The Israeli district committee for planning and building in the Jerusalem Municipality announced about a new plan to confiscate 1235 dunums of lands of Al-Walaja village south of Jerusalem city to be designated as national parks entitled "Amik Rfatim". The targeted lands are owned by local residents of Al-Walaja village and will include parking lot and a number of public buildings such as; tourist buildings on 50 dunums of lands, an information center and a restaurant. It is worth mentioning that the plan will be implemented in the area where 'Ein Al-Hinyia, one of the popular springs in the village, is located.

Others

- The Israeli Knesset Finance Committee approved the reallocation of NIS 61 million from the state budget. Inter alia, the committee approved an extra NIS 25 million for the Jewish Agency to use beyond Israel's 1967 borders, including NIS 1.5 million for infrastructure in settlements in the Hebron Hills, NIS 8 million for the Golan Research Institute in Katzrin, and NIS 7.6 million for public buildings in the Jordan Valley and the Binyamin district. Among the other allocations approved was NIS 36 million in funding for security in the West Bank. The transfers, requested by the Finance Ministry's budget division, reapportion funds among a number of different government ministries and agencies. The MKs in attendance were committee chairman Moshe Gafni (United Torah Judaism), Zion Pinyan (Likud), Faina Kirshenbaum (Yisrael Beiteinu), Zahava Gal-On (Meretz) and Jacob Edery (Kadima)

ARIJ